

Course Opportunities: Week of March 13th, 2023

Table of Contents

Summer Abroad Applications Open, March 15	2
[Psych 199] The Social Origins Lab, March 17	2
Create a DeCal with SLC UCFTR!	3
Summer Minor: Sustainable Business & Policy	5
AC Summer Course: Hidden in Plain Sight - Public History in Public Space	6

Summer Abroad Applications Open, March 15

Berkeley Summer Abroad offers intensive summer abroad programs built around Berkeley courses and led by Berkeley faculty. See below for upcoming program-specific info sessions! Applications close March 15.

2023 Programs:

- Paris, France: French Language, Culture and Society
- Paris, France: Muslims in the West: Immigration, Refugees and Islamophobia*
- Ghana: Pan Afrikan Social Movements: Past, Present, and Future*
- Eleusis, Greece: Artemaking, Community, and Social Impact*
- Greece: Mediterranean Nutrition and Food Systems
- Belfast, Northern Ireland: Leadership in Practice: Co-Founders and Peacemakers*
- Dublin, Ireland: Sport, History, and Cultural Identity
- Manila, Philippines: Narratives of Tradition and Resistance
- Portugal: Global Entrepreneurship and Innovation in Europe
- Barcelona, Spain: The Other Side/El Otro Lado
- London, U.K.: Shakespeare and the Arts in London

*New programs for summer 2023

Learn more at summerabroad.berkeley.edu

[Psych 199] The Social Origins Lab, March 17

The Social Origins Lab, directed by Professor Jan Engelmann at UC Berkeley, will be hosting an 8-week internship for summer 2023. Interns will be required to work 30 hours/week and will receive a $2400 stipend. We are looking for advanced undergraduates or recent graduates who are interested in developmental and/or comparative psychology. Successful applicants must be comfortable working with children, fully vaccinated, and able to pass a background check. Please visit our website <https://socialorigins.berkeley.edu> under the 'Get Involved' tab for more information and a link to the application. Applications will be due March 17th at 9:00AM.

If you have any questions, please email Eliza Swindell at socialoriginsmanager@berkeley.edu

Create a DeCal with SLC UCFTR!

If you could create your own college course, what would it be about? Would it explore the ethical dilemmas and medical possibilities of CRISPR? Or examine the historical influences and musical impacts of bachata?

No matter what topic you would choose, you have the opportunity to turn your passions into a full-fledged college class by creating a DeCal, or Democratic Education at Cal, course! DeCal is a unique opportunity for you to share your knowledge and further investigate an intellectual interest with fellow UC Berkeley undergraduates. By creating your own DeCal course, you will have a hand in expanding Cal's curriculum as well as make an impact on the educational journeys of your peers.

Want to create a DeCal but don't know where to start? The SLC Undergraduate Course Facilitator Training & Resources \(UCFTR\) program is here to support you! Partner with UCFTR to get started on your DeCal proposal process, complete mandatory training for DeCal facilitators, and explore strategies for effective DeCal facilitation. Check out UCFTR's services in the attached flyer and sign up for our email listserv to receive updates throughout the semester.

Email us at slc-ucftr@berkeley.edu if you have any questions, and we look forward to partnering with you on your DeCal creation process!

CREATE A DECAL WITH UCFTR!

Partner with the Undergraduate Course Facilitator Training & Resources (UCFTR) program to make your DeCal course a reality!

Our services include:

INFORMATION WORKSHOPS

Learn more about the DeCal program and get started with the DeCal proposal process.

FACILITATOR TRAINING

Complete mandatory training, strengthen facilitation skills & connect with fellow facilitators.

CONSULTATIONS

Ask questions, request feedback & receive 1:1 support to build & sustain a successful DeCal.

SLC UCFTR

CONTACT US

✉ slc-ucftr@berkeley.edu

🌐 slc.berkeley.edu/ucftr

📍 Chavez Student Center

Join UCFTR's
Newsletter at bit.ly/ucftr-listserve

The SLC welcomes persons with disabilities and provides reasonable accommodations upon request.

Summer Minor: Sustainable Business & Policy

WHY CHOOSE SUSTAINABLE BUSINESS & POLICY MINOR?

With the backing of two of the world's leading academic programs in business and environmental leadership, you will gain a broad understanding of the skills needed for careers in business or government focused on sustainable business and policy.

Students develop economic and business skills and gain an understanding of government laws and policies. The program offers an applied approach to studying business and regulatory challenges, and the critical sustainability challenges facing firms operating in a global economy over the next century.

This program will provide you with the skills to address some of the most challenging problems facing businesses, government agencies, and society. Almost every aspect of our economy and society more generally is affected by sustainability challenges. Whether you are interested in business, government service, nonprofit agencies, education, or most other careers, this program will help you demonstrate your abilities to address complex problems. It will help you open the door to these careers and graduate programs.

*Open to all UC Berkeley undergraduate students

COURSES OVERVIEW

Business Models for Sustainability UGBA 196SA	Data Tools for Sustainability EnvEcon 105	Intermediate Microeconomics with Applications to Sustainability EnvEcon 100
Investing for Sustainability UGBA 196SC	Innovation and Entrepreneurship for Sustainability UGBA 196SB	Economics of Sustainable Business and Policy EnvEcon 104

The principal mode of course delivery is in-person on the U.C. Berkeley campus.

However, some portions of each course may be delivered asynchronously, with work completed outside of regular class hours.

You will need to complete 5 out of 6 available courses in 1 or more summers.

ENROLLMENT & SCHOLARSHIPS

For enrollment information, please visit Berkeley Summer Sessions.

Please note that our courses are offered in various summer sessions and enrollment deadlines vary. The program can be completed in 1+ summers. Please look at the individual courses for a description of the prerequisites, if any.

SCHOLARSHIPS & FEES

If you are enrolled in the minor, you may be eligible for a $1,500 scholarship if you:

- Are currently enrolled as a U.C. Berkeley student
- Complete the academic requirements of the minor in one or two consecutive summers.
- Receive a GPA of 2.0 or higher in all courses comprising the minor & complete all courses before graduation

For more information, please check

<https://nature.berkeley.edu/sustainable-business-and-policy>

AC Summer Course: Hidden in Plain Sight - Public History in Public Space

<https://futurehistories.berkeley.edu/courses/hidden-in-plain-sight-public-history-in-public-space-2023/>

The course is sponsored by Future Histories Lab and also fulfills the elective requirement for the undergraduate Certificate in Global Urban Humanities, so if any students have taken a Future Histories Lab or Global Urban Humanities studio course, this will fulfill either the CED or the L&S elective required for the certificate.

Hidden in Plain Sight: Public History in Public Space

ENV DES 133AC/HUM 133AC

MWF 10-12

3 Units

Summer Sessions C

Course Description: Hidden in Plain Sight will explore the ways history can be illuminated or erased through urban design, museums and monuments, archives, historic preservation, heritage tourism, media, oral history, and cultural resource management. In this course you will explore some of the theoretical and methodological challenges surrounding the presentation and preservation of public spaces and histories in the U.S. context. Highlighting landscapes that have been shaped by issues such as economic inequality, processes of migration, mass incarceration, racism, and larger conditions of societal and planetary change, we will analyze what is hidden, forgotten, missing, or in need of representation. Case studies will consider different scales of representation in national, regional/state, and local projects. Throughout the semester, you will learn to connect historical projects and scholarship to wider audiences, while considering the expansion of history's stakeholders.

BERKELEY SUMMER
SESSIONS
2023

Hidden in Plain Sight: Public History in Public Space

HUM 133AC: CLASS# 15777 | ENVDES 133AC: CLASS# 15113

FULFILLS THE AMERICAN CULTURES REQUIREMENT

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course explores the ways history and memory are represented or erased in public space and how this affects policies and futures. We will examine monuments, public art, streets, parks, museums, archives, performative traditions and virtual space. Students will propose ways of representing history in public space as a way to shape future histories. We will explore the concept of “public history” and study artistic and literary representations of the past. We will consider the ways that city planning and urban design have used or ignored memory and meaning. Highlighting landscapes shaped by economic inequality, migration, incarceration, and racism, we will analyze what is hidden, forgotten, missing, or in need of representation.

REQUIREMENTS CLASS FULFILLS

- Fulfills the American Cultures requirement and the elective requirement for the Certificate in Global Urban Humanities

INSTRUCTOR

Catherine Covey

Berkeley Summer Sessions
summer.berkeley.edu

SESSION C

IN-PERSON

8 WEEKS

3 UNITS

JUNE 20 - AUGUST 11

M, W, F

10 AM - 12 NOON

See course listing
HUM 133AC
Class# 15777

See course listing
ENVDES 133AC
Class# 15113