Casa de Esperanza Internship Program, year-round apps

Casa de Esperanza, a non-profit in Houston, Texas, provides residential care to children birth through six who are in crisis due to abuse, neglect, or the effects of HIV. Care is provided in our neighborhood by our Hands of Hope interns. Our interns, most of whom are recent college graduates, join us for a year of service (a twelve-month full-time post-graduation internship). Applicants wishing to complete shorter internships are considered on a case by case basis. We

MOTIVATE Mentoring Program

Hello,

I hope this email finds you safe and well.

My name is Destiny Hernandez. I recently graduated from UCLA with a Bachelor's Degree in Neuroscience and I am working on the start of a virtual mentoring program, MOTIVATE, in the Montebello Unified School District. I am currently requesting those interested in the potential mentor role to fill out this form to provide a number of prospective mentors to the school district as we work together. If you could please send this out to your students, faculty, and alumni, I would greatly appreciate it. Here is a brief description of the program:

MOTIVATE is a mentoring program that aids to provide the students of the Montebello Unified School district resources that would aid their path to their career goal. The program aims to close the education gap by pairing students with mentors who have reached/are on their way to a career goal similar to the students' goals to share their experiences, their knowledge, and their guidance.

I hope you consider giving back to the community with a little bit of your time. Once again, here is the interest form. I look forward to hearing from you all. If you have any questions, please reach out to dghernandez1224@gmail.com

Thank you,
Destiny Hernandez

Volunteer RA Position: Emotion, Health, and Psychophysiology Lab at UCSF

The Emotion, Health, and Psychophysiology Lab at UCSF is accepting applications for volunteer research assistant positions.

Our research focuses on embodiment -- how the mind influences the body, and the reciprocal, how bodily changes influence thoughts, emotions, and intentions. Research assistants working in the lab are exposed to a variety of studies at the intersection of social psychology, emotion, and psychophysiology. RAs learn how to conduct studies, collect physiological data, and edit and score autonomic data. Our RAs work at least 10-12 hours a week for two school semesters.

This volunteer opportunity is ideal for undergraduate students or recent graduates looking to gain research experience for graduate school or medical school. Please note that while we welcome international applicants, we cannot help with the visa process.
