➤ Jacobs Winter Design Showcase, 12/11-12/19

The Jacobs Design Showcase--a semesterly celebration of work created by the amazing Jacobs student community--will held on December 11-12 this semester. Come support all of the students in classes, decals, clubs, the Jacobs student grant program, and more who will be proudly showing off their hard work from the semester. The event is free and open to the public. We'll have snacks, plus fun new elements like an Instagrammable photobooth, awards for the best project from each showcase session, etc. :)

➤ Apply for spring 2020 club/DeCal meeting space in Jacobs by 12/15

The request forms for club meeting space and DeCal teaching space for the spring 2020 semester are now available! The priority deadline for spring 2020 recurring meeting space requests is December 15, 2019; applications submitted after that date will be considered on a rolling basis. Access both of the request forms here. We will try to accommodate as many groups as possible, but please be reminded that meeting space in Jacobs Hall is limited and cannot be guaranteed.

➤ Holiday Toy Drive at the YWCA, 12/19/19

You can still make a difference this holiday season! The YWCA Berkeley/Oakland is partnering with the Western Service Workers Association, a member-led organization of low-paid service workers and families to support their holiday toy drive that freely distributes toys to local families in need. You can take action by sponsoring a child's wishes this holiday season!

To receive a child's wish list, email community@ywca-berkeley.org or call at (510) 559-0969, indicating how many children you would like to sponsor and you will receive a child's wishes.

TOYS MUST BE NEW, UNWRAPPED, AND DELIVERED TO THE YWCA AT 2600 BANCROFT WAY, BERKELEY, CA BY 5PM ON THURSDAY, DECEMBER 19TH.

➤ Apply for the Innovation Catalysts student grant program by 12/20

We are now accepting applications for the Jacobs Institute Innovation Catalysts spring 2020 cohort! The Innovation Catalysts fund student ideas and projects, to boost them to the next level. All grant projects must make use of the Maker Pass program; beyond that, we welcome a wide range of projects at the intersection of design and technology innovation, reflecting the multitude of talents and interests in the Jacobs community. The selection committee will cultivate a grant cohort that represents the diversity of the Berkeley community and fosters an inclusive design community.

Applications for the spring cohort are due by Friday, December 20th at 12pm. To learn more about the program:

- Visit the grant program page on the Jacobs website.
- Read about our 11 current grantees and check out their projects at the Jacobs Winter Design Showcase, December 11-12.

➤ BAMPFA's upcoming film series, 12/20/19-02/28/19

BAMPFA's upcoming film series, Next Door to Darkness: The Films of David Lynch

Screening this winter, this series celebrates the unique body of work of American filmmaker David Lynch. Drawing on, and often combining, the aesthetics of Surrealism, film noir, psychodrama, soap opera, and science fiction, Lynch has created a universe where characters struggle to do the right thing despite being compelled by external and internal forces that threaten their moral, psychological, and physical well-being. This retrospective of Lynch's work for the big screen allows the opportunity to explore his singular vision!

➤ Regional Discussion on Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment, 01/08/2020

The Department of the Navy and The University of New Mexico are pleased to announce A Regional Discussion on Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment at America's Colleges, Universities and Service Academies: Achieving Cultural Change Through Data and An Evaluation Mindset, set for February 6, 2020. The joint conference will be held in the Student Union Building (SUB), The University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Academic studies related to the prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment are sought to participate in a poster session during this event.

The purpose of the event is to sustain the conversation following the successful National Discussion and The State University of New York Regional Discussion on Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment at America's Colleges, Universities, and Service Academies, hosted at the United States Naval Academy in April and September 2019. Leading into 2020, this regional discussion demonstrates our shared commitment to eliminating sexual assault and sexual harassment from our institutions.

The intended audience for these sessions include College and University Presidents, Chancellors, and Provosts, Vice Presidents for Student Affairs, Directors of college/university/service academy sexual violence programs, Title IX coordinators, Service sexual assault and sexual harassment program managers, Senior Military Leaders and Service Academy Superintendents. Planning is ongoing for additional discussions in other regions of the country.

For poster preparation guidelines and submission visit, <https://www.secnav.navy.mil/sapro/REGIONAL-DISCUSSION-ON-SEXUAL-ASSAULT-AND-SEXUAL-HARASSMENT/Pages/Call-for-Studies-2020.aspx>, for more information.

➤ Fall 2020 Berkeley MDes – Masters of Design Program, 01/10/2020

Our newly launched Masters of Design program is accepting applications for the fall 2020 cohort. Visit the MDes site to learn more about application deadlines, upcoming info-sessions, and up-to-date news on the developing program: <https://design.berkeley.edu/>

Overview

The MDes program at UC Berkeley is a studio-based, on campus program. Over three semesters (fall, spring, and a second fall), you will complete a total of nine required core courses, two technical electives, and one additional elective to meet a minimum of 38 units before graduating in December. In the summer between the first and second years of the program, you are encouraged to pursue a professional internships.

People

Courses in the MDes are led by UC Berkeley faculty and lecturers, as well as industry experts covering a range of design practices. Together, the faculty bring expertise in topics ranging from human-computer interaction to sustainable 3D printing technologies, and represent professional experience in companies including IDEO, Tellart, Google, and more.

Career Paths

The MDes prepares you to work in creative and technical roles for designing products, services and environments. As the world sees rapid change enabled by emerging technologies, our graduates are expected to work in an expanding set of roles at the intersection of design, policy, and activism. Fostering domain expertise, a toolkit of design and technical skills, and a grounding in the Bay Area's rich design ecosystem, the MDes provides powerful preparation for high-impact design innovators.

➤ Summer Program in Food Science at The Ohio State University, 1/21/19

The Department of Food Science and Technology at The Ohio State University is excited to announce the launch of the undergraduate Summer Research Scholars Program.

This 10-week experience (May 17-July 25) will engage undergraduate students from across the United States in research under the direction of a faculty mentor. In addition, scholars will be introduced to important research-related concepts via in-class modules and participate in field trips to local food and beverage companies that provide exposure and insights into the food industry. This program seeks scholars from diverse academic backgrounds who are interested in applying their scientific knowledge and developing research skills. Interested students can get more information and access the application page at the following website:

Shame is perhaps the most painful of all emotions. It is at the root of both the inner critic and perfectionism. It binds with other emotions, such as anger and fear, so that is often hard to detect. Also, revealing shame can be in itself shameful. For many clients who don't get better in therapy, shame — unacknowledged and not worked through — is the primary factor.

This workshop provides essential, basic knowledge of how to work with shame. You will learn what shame is and how it is created, and how to help your clients recognize shame, work through it and move on. We will discuss how to become more sensitive to the shaming often implicit in the therapy situation and how to counter shame in therapy. You will learn to help clients separate feelings of shame from other emotions. And you'll learn how to help clients out of the shame morass so they can move their energy powerfully outward rather than turn it against themselves.

There is no prerequisite for this course. It can be taken by itself or as part of a sequence.

TO REGISTER, please visit the Schedule page at www.CenterforHealingShame.com.

For more information, call Sheila at 415-820-3974 or email Sheila@HealingShame.com.

➤ Fung Fellowship Applications Open, 2/21/19

What is the Fung Fellowship?

The Fung Fellowship is a unique opportunity for rising juniors to create innovative health and wellness solutions to address real-world challenges alongside our community and industry partners. Fung Fellows utilize the iterative human-centered design process, public health principles, and emerging technology.

As a Fung Fellow you will:

- Explore the Health + Tech space
- Experience the design process from prototype to product
- Embed in communities to co-create with them
- Establish yourself as a young leader in an emerging field
- Selected Fung Fellows attend a 3-unit course each semester, are supported in a summer internship, and have the opportunity to apply to a second year honors program.

Required Qualifications:

- Registered student at UC Berkeley
- Rising Junior (current Sophomore standing) with a passion for health, wellness, social impact, design, and/or technology

How to Apply:

Learn more about the program at: <http://fungfellows.berkeley.edu>

➤ UCSF Master's in Clinical Degree Program, 3/16/20

We wanted to bring to your attention our Master's Degree Program in Clinical Research at the University of California, San Francisco \(UCSF\). Founded in 2002, our program provides comprehensive theoretical instruction and practical training in a variety of methods of observational and experimental health-related research with human subjects. Graduates are prepared to work in the field of clinical and epidemiologic research in either academia, industry, or public health. Many graduates have used our program as a stepping stone for PhD training or professional school (medical, dental, or nursing). Application deadline is March 16, 2020, but we will begin reviewing applications on January 1, 2020.

Jan 13th 9:30-4:30 Growing Up in a Digital World: The Intersection of CSEC + Technology Lincoln, 1266 14th St., Oakland This 1-day training focuses on the intersection of CSEC and technology. The Internet has opened the door to CSEC recruitment, so its crucial providers are continually engaging in dialogue with youth about technology. The training will focus on the dangers of cell phones, social media, cyber bullying, sexting, and online gaming. The trainers will also discuss safety strategies for each of these categories and conversation starters with youth. <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/alameda-the-intersection-of-csec-technology-tickets-69014675753>

Jan 21st - 22nd 8:30-4:30 “The Empowerment Project” (CSE Intervention) Facilitator Training Oakland City Church, 2735 MacArthur Blvd, Oakland “The Empowerment Project” is a CSE intervention curriculum. It consists of 4 workbooks with 5 chapters in each workbook. The curriculum is based on the Stages of Change model. The earlier workbooks are focused on helping youth exit exploitation while the later workbooks are focused on adjusting to life outside of the commercial sex industry. Throughout the workbooks, youth will hear from CSE survivors about what they learned on their journeys. The two-day facilitator training will teach participants how to facilitate the curriculum with youth and young adults. This is a two-day training. CSEC 101 and 102 are prerequisites. <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/alameda-the-empowerment-project-csec-intervention-facilitator-training-tickets-73014926611>

Jan 23rd 9:30-4:30 Taking a Deeper Look at Human Trafficking: The Intersection of CSEC + Race/Ethnicity Allan Temple, 8501 International Blvd, Oakland This is a 1-day training that provides the historical context of human trafficking. Participants will learn about the historical oppression and trauma of ethnic groups and how this provides the back drop of human trafficking. Participants will also learn how to approach youth, families, and communities in culturally competent ways. <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/alameda-taking-a-deeper-look-at-human-trafficking-the-intersectionof-csec-raceethnicity-tickets-72592452981>

Jan 24th 8:30-4:30 An Overview of Child Labor Trafficking Lincoln, 1266 14th St., Oakland While the larger human trafficking narrative has focused on child sex trafficking, it’s also important to discuss child labor trafficking. This training will provide an overview of child labor trafficking in the United States, including what it is, risk factors, and pathways of entry.

Participants will also learn about warning signs someone is being labor trafficked and recommendations to support labor trafficking survivors. <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/an-overview-of-child-labor-trafficking-tickets-75395438787>

➤ Haas Scholars Research Fellowship Information Sessions

Each year, the Haas Scholars Program brings together twenty highly qualified, academically talented undergraduates with financial need to build a supportive intellectual community during their final year at UC-Berkeley. Haas Scholars come from all walks of life and every major on campus, but they are united by their desire to strive for excellence--both in their individual academic pursuits, and as an interdisciplinary cohort. International students and undocumented students are welcome and encouraged to apply.

Applicants are evaluated primarily on the merit and originality of their proposal for an independent research or creative project that will serve as the basis for a senior or honors thesis. Once selected, Haas Scholars receive close mentoring from members of the UC-Berkeley faculty, seminars and workshops to assist them in the research and writing process, the opportunity to present their work at a professional conference, and up to $13,800 each in financial support.

If you are considering applying to Haas Scholars for summer 2020, we encourage you to attend an hour-long info session offered on the dates below. All info sessions will be held in Durant Hall, Room 9, unless otherwise noted.
