➢ L&S Mentoring, 2/4 -2/18/20
Trying to decide on a major? Need study tips? Deciding what to do after graduation?

L&S Mentors provide one-on-one support to help you improve academic skills, identify major and career goals, or even find your place in the UC Berkeley community. These graduate students can give insight into how to communicate with GSIs and faculty and actively support all students, including first generation, underrepresented, and international students.

Not sure where to start? Try one of the L&S Mentoring Hubs:

- Week to Week: Successful Time Management Skills (Feb 4)
- Mobilizing Your Major: Interviews, Jobs, and Internships (Feb 11)
- Considering What’s Next: Is Grad School Right for Me? (Feb 18)

- Fung Fellowship Info Sessions, 2/5, 7, 11 & 13/20

SUMMER RESEARCH PROGRAM AT HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL,
Deadline 2/11/20

The Program for Research in Markets and Organizations (PRIMO) is a highly selective 10-week summer residential community of undergraduates participating in research affiliated with HBS faculty. The Program seeks to create a diverse group of Fellows including but not limited to women and underrepresented minorities who are inspired by and are committed to pursuing excellence in business research. As PRIMO enters its tenth year, we are pleased to open up the program to students from any American undergraduate institution who may be considering doctoral studies.

Rising sophomores, juniors, or seniors at University of California, Berkeley who might be considering doctoral studies after graduation are encouraged to apply. PRIMO will run from 8 June - 15 August, 2020 and offers Fellows lodging, a partial board plan, and a stipend.

The deadline to submit applications is Tuesday, February 11th at 12:00 pm EST.

Application details: https://www.hbs.edu/doctriral/primo/Pages/apply.aspx

➢ Study Abroad Opportunity for Undergraduate Students, 2/17/20

There’s an exciting opportunity for undergraduate students to study abroad in Israel for summer 2020. This global internship program would be an opportunity for students to gain first-hand knowledge, connections, and international work experience through an academic internship in Israel. To apply to this global internship, go to http://bit.ly/calisrael and have your application in by February 17, 2020.
Global Poverty & Practice Minor Info Sessions, 2/12/20-3/4/20

The GPP Minor introduces students to the theoretical frameworks, methods, and practical skills necessary to engage with global poverty and inequality in effective ways.
The minor requires five courses and a "Practice Experience." This experience is a central component of the minor in which students partner with domestic or international non-governmental or community organizations, government agencies, or other poverty or development programs, on various dimensions of poverty action – from food security and sustainable technologies to economic justice and grass-roots political power. The combination of the coursework for the minor and this real world experience allows students to connect theories and practices of poverty action. Funding is available to support students’ practice experiences.

The deadline to declare the minor this semester is Wednesday, March 11th. There are no prerequisites required to declare.

The Declaration Form and additional information about the minor can be found at: http://blumcenter.berkeley.edu/gppminor.

Information Sessions about the minor will be held in Blum Hall 100A/B (Ground Floor) at the following times:

- Wednesday, February 12th 5 - 6 PM
- Thursday, February 27th 1 - 2 PM
- Wednesday, March 4th 3 - 4 PM

Contact gppminor@berkeley.edu with any questions.

I-O Psychology Master’s Program at Texas A&M University, 2/15/20

Have you thought about the Master’s program in Industrial-Organizational (I-O) Psychology at Texas A&M University? I-O psychology is the scientific study of human behavior at work and the application of that science to the workplace challenges facing individuals, teams, and organizations.
The Master’s program in I-O psychology at Texas A&M University is a 33-credit hours, full-time, non-thesis, cohort-based (team-focused) program designed to be completed in 16 months. The curriculum balances scientific discipline with professional practice and the required industry-based internship experience gives our students a competitive advantage on the job market. Students will also learn from faculty who are engaged in the field and who also teach courses in a nationally ranked I-O psychology Ph.D. program.

We are now accepting applications for fall 2020 and February 15 is the annual deadline for admission. Applicants who wish to be considered for the Diversity Excellence Fellowship nomination must have a complete application on file by January 3rd. See the attached flyer and visit our website (tx.ag/MSIOP) to learn more about the program. Please contact Bisi Atoba at 979-458-8611 or bisi.atoba@tamu.edu for more information.

Institute of Governmental Studies Grant Opportunities, 2/18/20 Deadline

The Robert T. Matsui Center for Politics & Public Service Local Government Fellowship

The Matsui Local Government Fellowship offers students the opportunity to get firsthand municipal experience in California's political and policy making communities. Each year, students selected for this program intern in a branch of local government of the student's preference. The internship will involve full-time work during the summer. Students will receive a stipend to help with living costs and transportation. Students accepted to the Fellowship are also automatically accepted into the Spring Break program Democracy Camp. This will allow Local Government Fellows to learn more about public service opportunities and to build a cohort with other students. Participation is optional but encouraged. All students currently enrolled at UC Berkeley are encouraged to apply!

➢ Haas Scholars, 2/19/20 Deadline

The Haas Scholars Program provides up to $13,800 in support for students to carry out a research project in the summer prior to, and during, their senior year. It also provides peer support and staff support and guidance at every step of the research process, including the application process.

Eligibility is: 3.45+ gpa, eligible for financial aid with an EFC of less than $26,000, and graduating in fall 20 or spring 21. Interested students should read the website carefully and get in touch with me at haas_scholars@berkeley.edu as soon as possible.

Deadline: 2/19/20 at NOON.

➢ Summer Undergraduate Research Fellowships (SURF), 2/20/20

The SURF Program is made up of five different fellowships:
SURF L&S
SURF Rose Hills Experience
SURF Rose Hills Independent
SURF Math Team Fellowship
SURF-SMART

The SURF L&S fellowship allows UC Berkeley undergraduates in the College of Letters and Science to spend the summer doing concentrated research in preparation for a senior thesis. Fellows receive $5000. These fellowships are generously supported by a number of private donors.

The SURF Rose Hills Experience fellowship allows UC Berkeley sophomores and juniors from Southern California in certain math, science, and engineering majors (L&S, CNR, COE, C.
Chem) to immerse themselves in full-time summer research supporting a research project that is designed and directed by a faculty member. Fellows receive $5000. This program is generously supported by the Rose Hills Foundation.

The SURF Rose Hills Independent fellowship is for UC Berkeley juniors in the summer before their senior year who are intending to do research projects of their own design as part of a senior thesis for a major. Students must have permanent residence in Southern California and be part of certain STEM majors. Graduating seniors are also eligible. Fellows receive $5000. This program is generously supported by the Rose Hills Foundation.

The SURF Math Team Fellowship is for a team of four UC Berkeley math majors of any year to propose a summer research project under the mentorship of a UC Berkeley math professor. Each team member will receive a $5000 fellowship, and the faculty mentor will receive $2500 in research funds.

The SURF-SMART (Student Mentoring and Research Teams) is a program that enables doctoral students to create mentored research opportunities for undergraduate students at UC Berkeley. The program provides summer funding for both graduate and undergraduate participants and opportunities to share research results on campus and at national conferences. Each SURF-SMART undergraduate fellow will receive a $5000 fellowship, and the graduate student Mentors receive a stipend from the Graduate Division.

Fung Fellowship Applications Open, 2/21/20

What is the Fung Fellowship?
The Fung Fellowship is a unique opportunity for rising juniors to create innovative health and wellness solutions to address real-world challenges alongside our community and industry partners. Fung Fellows utilize the iterative human-centered design process, public health principles, and emerging technology.

As a Fung Fellow you will:
- Explore the Health + Tech space
- Experience the design process from prototype to product
- Embed in communities to co-create with them
- Establish yourself as a young leader in an emerging field
- Selected Fung Fellows attend a 3-unit course each semester, are supported in a summer internship, and have the opportunity to apply to a second year honors program.

Required Qualifications:
- Registered student at UC Berkeley
- Rising Junior (current Sophomore standing) with a passion for health, wellness, social impact, design, and/or technology
How to Apply:

Expanding Your Horizons Conference, Women in STEM, Volunteers Needed, 3/7/20

UC Berkeley's Expanding Your Horizons in Science and Mathematics (EYH) Conference will be held Saturday, March 7th 2020 on campus. This conference serves to introduce 5th through 8th grade female-identifying students to career opportunities in mathematics, science, engineering, computer science, and technology. This year, we will be inviting 450 youth from the East Bay community to explore math and science by participating in diverse workshops and interacting with womxn undergraduate mentors.

We will need UC Berkeley undergraduate volunteers to assist all day with the conference!

Undergraduate volunteers can sign up here. More detailed information about the EYH can be found on our website.
Teach for Splash at Berkeley, 3/8/20

Instill your passion about any subject to high schoolers around the Bay Area! Splash is a student organization that brings over 400 high school students to Berkeley’s campus for a day of unlimited learning through classes taught by Berkeley students (YOU)! This year, Splash will be on Sunday, March 8th.

Splash is a low-commitment, high impact educational outreach opportunity that also gives you agency on your course. You choose the topic, how many students can enroll in your class, and how many sessions you teach throughout the day. If you would like to teach with others, you can also have co-facilitator(s) in a course.

Also, all teachers get a free t-shirt and lunch!

If you or your friend(s) are interested in teaching a course to high school students, sign up to register as a teacher here.

The tentative deadline to sign up to teach a class is February 11th! The day of Splash is March 8th.

Don’t know what exactly to teach? Know what you want to teach but want some feedback?
This year, we are also hosting two optional teacher training sessions for those who are interested on Saturday, February 8th and Saturday from 2-3pm, February 22nd from 2-3:30pm. You can RVSP here at bit.ly/SPLASHTACHERWS.

If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to us at splash.berkeley@gmail.com.

UCSF Master’s in Clinical Degree Program, 3/16/20

We wanted to bring to your attention our Master’s Degree Program in Clinical Research at the University of California, San Francisco (UCSF). Founded in 2002, our program provides comprehensive theoretical instruction and practical training in a variety of methods of observational and experimental health-related research with human subjects. Graduates are prepared to work in the field of clinical and epidemiologic research in either academia, industry, or public health. Many graduates have used our program as a stepping stone for PhD training or professional school (medical, dental, or nursing). Application deadline is March 16, 2020, but we will begin reviewing applications on January 1, 2020.

Shame and Aging - ONLINE
Healing the Shame of Aging in a Society that Worships Youth
A Workshop for Therapists and Helping Professionals with Sheila Rubin, LMFT, RDT/BCT and Bret Lyon, PhD, SEP

Online using Zoom – Live and Recorded
4 Fridays: March 20, 27, April 3 and 17 (No class April 10)
10am–1:30pm Pacific Time

$375 full price / $350 with full payment by February 14, 2020
Special price for interns

13 CE credits available (See website for details) - CAMFT CE provider #134393

We all go through it. No one is immune. And nothing produces more universal shame in our society than aging. Whereas many societies have deep respect for people as they age and see a vital role for elders, our society still worships youth.

In this workshop, we will explore and learn to be more comfortable with our own aging process. And we will explore ways to help clients talk about, explore and heal their own shame around aging. We will:

• Discover ways to help clients become aware of the many messages they received and continue to receive about aging and body image from family and society.
• Learn ways to help clients cope with the shame of not being able to do all that they once did.
• Understand counter-shaming techniques to help ourselves and our clients find pride and joy in the new reality—seeing that there are real gains as well as losses in this new stage of life.
• Work with the shame that can cause and result from sicknesses and injuries.
• Identify challenges in being looked at as unimportant and “not up to par” by a youth-oriented society and the layers of shame that can occur.
• Discover how to make the necessary adjustments so we can regain access to the life force and creativity that we still have in a grounded and embodied way.
• Begin to shift and transform cultural stereotypes about aging by finding a reservoir of vitality, inner vision and clear action for the next phase of life, that may be hidden under shame!

There is no prerequisite for this course. It can be taken by itself or as part of a sequence.

TO REGISTER, please visit the Schedule page at www.HealingShame.com.

Abstracts are currently being accepted for the 63rd Annual Spartan Psychological Association Research Conference (SPARC), hosted by the Psi Chi chapter and the Department of Psychology at San Jose State University. All graduate and undergraduate students involved in psychological research or related fields are encouraged to apply. Submission forms and conference information can be found at the following link (also see attached flier):
http://www.sjsu.edu/psych/Events/SPARC/

Submission deadline: Friday, March 20, 2020

SPARC will be held on Monday, April 20th, 2020 in Student Union Ballroom B, San Jose State University.
Gain professional experience in a cooperative environment!
Since 1957, the Spartan Psychological Association Research Conference (SPARC) has been providing students of psychology the opportunity to present their original research in a conference setting.

Undergraduate and graduate students interested in presenting their psychological research at SPARC should submit an abstract for consideration by March 20, 2020.*

Please join us this year, on April 20, as presenter or attendee, for another outstanding program comprised of oral presentations, poster presentations, and a keynote address from a distinguished scholar in psychology.

Keynote Speaker
Dr. Erin Flynn-Evans
Director of Fatigue Countermeasures Laboratory
NASA Ames Research Center

*Abstracts for proposed and completed studies are both welcome.
Submit abstracts online at:

Northwestern University Psychology Sneak Peak Program, 3/29/20

We are currently accepting applications for the 2020 Department of Psychology Sneak Peak Program at Northwestern University. The Sneak Peak Program is a great opportunity for traditionally underrepresented students considering a PhD in psychology to attend a preview weekend at Northwestern University. Visit expenses, including travel, lodging, and meals, will be provided.

Participating students will have the opportunity to visit Northwestern’s Department of Psychology, interact with faculty members and graduate students, and meet peers interested in pursuing graduate education in psychology.

This year's sneak peek will take place on Friday, June 5th and Saturday, June 6th, 2020

Applications are now open!

The deadline to apply is 5pm CT on Sunday, March 29th, 2020.

Anne H. Scott Memorial Undergraduate Scholarship in Chinese Studies, 3/29/20

The Anne H. Scott Memorial Undergraduate Scholarship in Chinese Studies is funded through the Anne H. Scott Endowment in Chinese Studies at IEAS, a gift of Hugh A. Scott in memory of his late wife, Anne H. Scott (née Anne Hanrahan), and her dedication to Chinese historical studies. The Scholarship supports an undergraduate student emphasizing Chinese studies at UC Berkeley. It is intended to assist students who have studied the Chinese language and who wish to use their language training to study Chinese history or culture, or to translate historical texts. This year one award of $2,500 is available.

Deadline: Wednesday, April 1, 2020, 5:00 p.m.

Follow this link for the full announcement and application procedures. Questions?

University of Nebraska-Lincoln Diversifying Psychology Weekend, 4/3/20

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln will be holding its second annual Diversifying Psychology Weekend. This weekend event is intended to help workshop doctoral program application materials for applicants from underrepresented backgrounds. We define underrepresented and diversity broadly.

The weekend will take place July 31 through August 2. Travel, lodging, and most meals will be covered during the event. All attendees will also be eligible to receive payment for graduate application fees at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. Applications are due April 3 and we anticipate notifying all attendees by May 1.
