2021 Dream Summer Fellowship, February 19
Dream Summer is an annual fellowship of the UCLA Labor Center’s Dream Resource Center (DRC) that empowers immigrant youth and allies to be the next generation of social justice leaders through leadership and professional development, movement building, and on-the-ground experience in social justice organizations. During the summer, fellows are placed within social justice-based host organizations and work closely with their host organization to incorporate and strengthen the role of immigrant rights issues alongside the organization’s social justice work.

Dream Summer 2021 is open to both experienced social justice leaders and those who wish to begin or strengthen their involvement in social justice. Dream Summer fellows receive a $5,000 fellowship award, leadership and professional development training, and become part of a national alumni network of over 750 immigrant rights leaders.

Dream Summer will happen virtually in 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Staff will notify participants immediately of any changes.

The deadline for fellows to apply is February 19, 2021 at 12 PM PST. http://bit.ly/DSapply

D-Lab Python Workshops, 2/22 - 2/24

GeoSpatial Data In Python with GeoPandas: Parts 1-2

Feb 22, 24 | 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM | Register for Zoom Link
Geospatial data are an important component of social science and humanities data visualization and analysis. This workshop will introduce basic methods for working with geospatial data in Python using GeoPandas, a relatively new Python library for working with geospatial data that has matured and stabilized in the last few years. In the workshop we will import geospatial data stored in shapefiles and CSV files into geopandas objects. We will explore methods for subsetting and spatial reshaping these objects. We will use geopandas methods for defining and transforming coordinate reference systems. Participants will also join tabular data to geospatial data and create maps based on the data values.

Basic knowledge of geospatial data is expected. Python experience equivalent to the D-Lab Python Fundamentals workshop series is required to follow along with the tutorial.

Intro to ML in Python: Parts 1-2
Feb 22, 24 | 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM | Register for Zoom Link

This workshop introduces students to scikit-learn, the popular machine learning library in Python, as well as the auto-ML library built on top of scikit-learn, TPOT. The focus will be on scikit-learn syntax and available tools to apply machine learning algorithms to datasets.

We will assume a basic knowledge of Python and a basic understanding of machine learning techniques. No theory instruction will be provided.

Tech Interview Panel, 2/23

Technical Interview Panel (Virtual)
Tuesday, Feb 23rd, 4pm-5pm
Registration and webinar link on Handshake HERE

This virtual session is dedicated to providing suggestions and resources for navigating technical interviews. Our panelists from a cross-section of STEM fields will share their own experiences and answer your questions for how to prepare for and perform in technical interviews.
UCEAP Human Rights Study Abroad Program, 2/23

Human Rights and Cultural Memory
Multi-site: Buenos Aires, Argentina & Santiago, Chile
Fall Term
Apply by February 23, 2021
Open to So, Jr, Sr
Rising from past military dictatorships, Argentina and Chile are models in social, political, and cultural reinvention. Observe, experience, and compare both countries as you travel from Buenos Aires to Santiago. Each location is rich in contrasts with diverse cultures and landscapes. You also have a chance to interact with local political and human rights organizations. Cultural tours and activities introduce unique flavors, sights, and history.

Funding Opportunities from Center for African Studies, 2/26 & 4/2

The Rosberg Geist Undergraduate Research Fellowship
The Center for African Studies is pleased to announce the 2021 competition for an undergraduate fellowship of up to $3,000 to support travel to Africa for research and study. The award is a memorial to Carl Rosberg (1923-1996), former professor of Political Science, Director of the Institute of International Studies, and founder of the Center for African Studies at the University of California at Berkeley; and to his student, Judith Geist, who followed in his footsteps with her work in East Africa.

Eligibility: Current UC Berkeley Undergraduate Students with an interest in Africa who will be registered in the 2021-2022 academic year (i.e., one must return to campus as a registered student following the research trip). Priority will be given to 1) students with training in African studies and foreign languages, particularly African languages, and 2) students with demonstrated financial need who otherwise would not be able to travel to the African continent. If travel is not possible due to the pandemic, fellowship recipients can work with the Center on an approved appropriate adjustment to the research project, if possible.

Application deadline is Friday, 26 February 2021
https://africa.berkeley.edu/rosberg-geist-application-information

Award for Best Undergraduate Thesis in African Studies
A prize of $250 will be awarded to the best senior thesis written by a UC Berkeley undergraduate on a topic related to Africa. The thesis can be written in any discipline or major. Applicants must submit an online application form, along with submitting a copy of the paper or thesis and a letter of recommendation from a faculty advisor to asc@berkeley.edu.

Application deadline is Friday, 2 April 2021

UCSF Master of Science in Biomedical Imaging, 2/28

The UCSF Masters of Science in Biomedical Imaging (MSBI) program would like to announce that we are accepting Fall 2021 applications from November 18, 2020-February 28, 2021.
For those that may be interested, please feel free to visit the website or email (msbi@ucsf.edu). Please forward to those that may be interested.

https://radiology.ucsf.edu/education/graduate-programs/msbi-program
The Master of Science in Biomedical Imaging (MSBI) program provides theoretical and practical exposure to all aspects of medical imaging technology. The program can be completed in one year of full time study and allows students to learn the foundations of medical imaging, explore how imaging is applied in medical practice, and perform independent research under the supervision of faculty that are leaders in this exciting field.

The Department of Radiology and Biomedical Imaging at UCSF features an outstanding faculty and is annually ranked amongst the top programs in the country for both research and training. MSBI students interact closely with faculty and have the opportunity to contribute to research activities in a wide array of applications ranging from image processing to the development of new molecular imaging agents. MSBI students commonly go on to MD and PhD programs, or may choose to work in industries that develop imaging related products or apply medical imaging in product development.

Master of Information and Data Science Application, 3/4

Hello,

This is a friendly reminder that our 5th Year MIDS Final Application Deadline for our Summer 2021 start date is less than two weeks away.

Complete my Summer 2021 application

As a reminder, please see below for a list of our required application materials. And, make sure they have been completed and uploaded to your online application before you submit it.

5th Year MIDS Application Requirements

- Statement of Purpose - Describe your academic and professional accomplishments, goals, and why you are drawn to the 5th Year MIDS program.
Miscellaneous Opportunities: Week of February 22, 2021

- Short Answer Essays - Limit your response to 300 words.
  - Essay 1: Discuss a time when you used data to make a decision or to solve a problem; explain your decision-making process from beginning to end. Make sure to choose an example and to describe it in such a way that clearly illustrates your analytical and problem-solving abilities.
  - Essay 2: To provide the admissions committee with a complete and comprehensive understanding of your background, please use this statement to expand on any personal, professional, and/or academic challenges or hardships you have faced that could provide us with additional insight into the context of the accomplishments and struggles you share in your application.
- 3 Letters of Recommendation - We prefer a mixture of academic and professional letters. Most importantly, your recommenders should be able to provide details about your accomplishments, impact, technical aptitude, leadership skills, personal qualities, and potential for success in and contribution to the program.
- Uploaded Resume - Upload a current resume reflecting your academic work and accomplishments, work experience, if applicable, and any other relevant information.
- Uploaded College Transcripts - Upload transcripts for all university-level studies you have completed towards your undergraduate degree, both domestic and international. Please be sure that any classes which are in progress are reflected on the transcript and/or listed in the Academic History section of your application.
- Core Technical Competencies - In this section, please describe your knowledge of the requested fundamental data science concepts. Note that we offer coursework for admitted students who lack a working knowledge of these concepts.
- Application Fee - $120 domestic and $140 international. (We offer U.S. military service members an application fee waiver. Prior to submitting your application, please complete our Military Application Fee waiver request form.)
- Not required: GRE or GMAT - We recommend you put your time and effort towards the required application materials. Read more about our decision to drop the GRE/GMAT requirement.

Please note: we do NOT require the following application materials - sampling of relevant written work, publications and presentations, honors and awards, and website.

As always, please don't hesitate to contact us with questions by simply replying to this email. We look forward to receiving your application!

Berkeley Undergraduate Journal of Classics Call for Papers, 3/15

BUJC Call for Papers

The Berkeley Undergraduate Journal of Classics has been revitalized and is now open for paper submissions for our 2021 Spring Issue. We are currently limiting submissions to academic papers and translations, but don’t fret - we hope to open up submissions to creative projects in our coming issues. (Submission Deadline - March 15 midnight PST)

While this is a journal of Classics, we think of the classical world as being any area or people with an effect on the Mediterranean, including less-recognized cultures such as the Carthaginians, Steppe-Nomads, Etruscans, and countless others.
To submit, please visit our website and hit the big red “Submit” button. All submissions should be in Times New Roman, 12-pt font, and no more than 10 pages single-spaced, with Chicago-Style footnotes and bibliography. You will be notified regarding the state of your submission by mid-April.

If you do not hear back from us, or have any questions, please contact us at berkeleyujc@gmail.com. We look forward to meeting you!

Berkeley Psi Chi Spring 2021 Recruitment, 3/15

Firebaugh Scholars Program, 3/19

THE MARCO ANTONIO FIREBAUGH SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The Marco Antonio Firebaugh Scholars Program is a collaboration of the Office for Graduate Diversity, Graduate Division, Graduate School of Education, the Chancellor's Advisory Committee on Student Services and Fees, and faculty mentors from disciplines across the Berkeley campus. Firebaugh Scholars receive funding and academic support to design and complete an independent faculty-sponsored research project over the course of one academic year; we also prepare scholars to apply to graduate school and post-baccalaureate opportunities in hopes of continuing to diversify the faculty and researchers at colleges and universities across the United States.

Apply to join the 2021-2022 cohort!
APPLICATION DEADLINE: MARCH 19, 2021

eligibility: Firebaugh Scholars must...

- Plan to graduate in May 2022 or later
- Be undocumented/AB540/DACAmended, formerly incarcerated, and/or system-impacted scholars
- Demonstrate interest in research and pursuing graduate school
- Provide a complete application, including a brief research proposal and two letters of recommendation (1 letter may come from a community college professor)
- Be enrolled at UC Berkeley and available to take a 1-unit P/NP research seminar in Fall 2021 and Spring 2022

ICPSR Summer Program, 3/29

Over 100 scholarships available!
The ICPSR Summer Program offers over 100 scholarships to students from many different fields of social science research. These scholarships enable students to take our courses in statistics, data analysis, and quantitative methods.

These scholarships provide fee waivers to attend our four-week sessions. The first session begins June 21 and ends July 16, and the second begins on July 19 and ends August 13. Courses will be fully online again this summer, allowing participants to learn from anywhere in the world. Lectures are recorded; there is no need to stay up until all hours of the night (unless you really want to).

Courses include introductory and advanced regression analysis, time series analysis, Bayesian analysis, machine learning, rational choice theory, SEM, MLE, game theory, longitudinal analysis, multilevel modeling, social choice theory, race/ethnicity and quantitative methodology, data visualization, data science and text analysis, and more.

- Clogg Scholarship: Open to students conducting research in Sociology
- Clubb Scholarship: Open to students conducting research in Quantitative History or related fields
- Diversity Scholarship: Open to graduate students from under-represented groups. Stipends available.
- Heitowit Scholarship: Open to students, faculty, and researchers from all disciplines who have previously attended a four-week session of the ICPSR Summer Program
- Scholarship for Political Science Research: Open to students conducting research in Political Science
- Miller Scholarship: Open to pre-tenure scholars, assistant professors, and students conducting research on electoral/political behavior. Stipends available.
- Scholarship for Public Administration, Public Policy, and Public Affairs: Open to students conducting research in public administration, public policy, or public affairs
- Scholarship for Developmental, Child, and Family Psychology: Open to students conducting research in developmental, child, or family psychology
- Scholarship for Education Research: Open to students conducting research in education and related fields

We also offer scholarship in partnership with various organizations:
• EITM Certification Scholarships cover the registration fee for one or both four-week sessions of the ICPSR Summer Program. For application information and eligibility criteria, check the EITM website.

• Janet Box-Steffensmeier and John A. Garcia Scholarships are awarded by the Society for Political Methodology to encourage women and underrepresented graduate students in political science to attend the ICPSR Summer Program. These awards are a waiver of registration fees to attend one or both four-week sessions.

• ISR-Rackham Summer Training Awards provide funds to support doctoral students from the University of Michigan (across all Rackham Divisions) who would like to take courses with the ICPSR Summer Program or SRC Summer Institute.

• The Hanes Walton, Jr. Award for Quantitative Methods Training is awarded by the National Conference of Black Political Scientists and provides a waiver of registration fees for one or both of the four-week sessions. The Hanes Walton, Jr. Award is intended to encourage attendance in the ICPSR Summer Program by faculty and graduate students from Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs), as well as women and minority graduate students and faculty at other institutions.

Application Period: The scholarship application portal will open on Monday, February 15, 2021 and close at 11:59 p.m. EST on Monday, March 29, 2021. For more information and to apply, visit the ICPSR Summer Program Scholarships page.

Stay up-to-date with the Summer Program!

You can keep up with the program on social media (Twitter, Facebook, Instagram), or sign up for our email list. Or both!
BFI Food Justice Writing Contest, 3/31

The Berkeley Food Institute will be hosting a writing contest to amplify student voices in the UC Berkeley community on the topic of the intersections between COVID-19 and food justice. The contest is open to all UC Berkeley students and is free to enter. Judging will be conducted by a mix of Berkeley faculty, external editors, and BFI staff. Cash prizes will be awarded for winning entries, which will be posted on the BFI website. BFI will also support winning submissions to be published in other off and on-campus publications. This is your chance to share your voice and bring to light issues that you care about deeply!

See contest details here.

SLC Writing Center: Make Time for Meaningful Writing

Dear writers,

It’s a shorter week than most, with midterms oncoming, so we know you’re likely juggling a lot.
Our advice if you’ve got papers in the mix? Don’t sit on those assignments. Bring them in and bring your writing to life! The more you invest in your writing upfront, the richer the reward when you reach those deadlines.

Drop-in and Appointment services start at 10 AM (PST) sharp, with plenty of slots still open today, and you can already book appointments through next Wednesday. We also have one more Weekly orientation happening on Friday at 2 PM (PST).

However else you choose to wrap up this week, we hope you’ll set aside some time for your writer self to shine!

Re:treat App: Anonymous Mental Health/Self Care

As Berkeley students, we may be all facing similar issues from peer pressure, social anxiety, post-grad anxiety, and the list goes on: missing Oski so badly, having hard time catching up with zoom lectures, unable to go to Moffitt to study, stressful projects and final, and overall uncertainty about the future…We are therefore planning to send out this weekly newsletter to build a space for Berkeley students to share their struggles (and coping strategy potentially) anonymously, gain support from reading others’ personal stories to get through certain issues, and get some tips in dealing with emotional distress.

Feel free to subscribe by taking 10 seconds to fill out this google form (https://forms.gle/wFfgyoJyFdoRj2dh9 simply one YES question!) and we will keep you updated with the newsletter and our progress to help Berkeley students reconnect in this special time.

If you have even slightest emotional distress, please don’t hesitate to explore our website https://www.re-treat.app which helps to label your short-term daily hassles, generate your personalized 5-to-10 minute self-care mental exercises and connect you to the community anonymously.

Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship Program

Are you a humanities or humanistic social science major who is thinking of going to graduate school to become a college professor?

Are you a student who is interested in studying social justice, the experiences of people of color, or how to make academe more accessible to people who have not been traditionally represented in higher education?

Finally, are you eager to make your mark by helping transform the professoriate, by bringing your diverse lived experience and perspective to the disciplines?

The Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship is a very prestigious undergraduate program that pays you to develop your research and helps you apply to graduate school. Becoming a Mellon Fellow also opens up a national network of programs and opportunities that makes it easier for you to find funding and support as you negotiate the challenges that graduate school can represent.

Visit our MMUF website, http://mellonmays.berkeley.edu/ for more details about our program.

Come On Out - Japan’s 6th Annual Global English Camp Summer Internship Program

Attention students and recent graduates!

We are launching Come On Out - Japan’s 6th Annual Global English Camp Summer Internship Program and extending our invitation to top Universities and Japanese high school students for a cross-cultural learning experience.

We are currently seeking university students and recent graduates with native level English skills who are passionate about Japanese culture, gaining global experience, and mentoring others.
They will be offered the opportunity to come to Japan for five weeks from mid-July to late August, 2021. Although this is an unpaid internship, the sponsor is providing certain expenses for each intern who participates in the six-week program. Airfare, lodging, meal and transportation subsidies will be provided. The program also offers optional Japanese language classes, field trips and an overnight trip. These additional opportunities are all designed to add cultural enrichment to your summer abroad experience.

This program is vastly different from any other traditional teaching position in Japan. Interns will facilitate English conversations with Japanese high school students on a variety of relevant global topics ranging from discussing the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals to their personal life missions. Interns will be able to extend mentorship to new students each week as well as form lifelong connections with their fellow interns inside and outside the classroom.

We do not have any Japanese fluency requirements. Come On Out - Japan accepts undergraduates, graduates and recently graduated students as well.

Applications are now open at http://www.comeonoutjapan.com! If you have additional questions regarding the program, please contact Come on Out - Japan directly at info@comeonoutjapan.com or via the inquiry tab on our website. Mental Health United Recruiting Members

My name is Ryan Cabote and I am a sophomore Psychology student and I recently started a student-run mental health organization called Mental Health United and we are currently looking for people to become apart of our team!
Given that, are you interested in working on projects to provide mental health resources to underserved communities? Do you want to help eliminate mental health disparities? If so, apply to become a part of the Mental Health United family! We currently have three team positions open that all pertain to different interests (e.g. Web Development and Writing). If you want to learn more, visit linktr.ee/mentalhealthunited.

Indeed, there are many other student-run mental health organizations out there, so what makes Mental Health United different from other student-run mental health organizations?

Integration. Our goal at the moment is to implement Mental Health First Aid into California Community Colleges, California State Universities, and the University of California system, in addition to other schools in California, and make the certification mandatory for all staff and students. Through integration, we are able to provide a tangible resource for the mental health community and essentially make Mental Health First Aid as common as Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR). After integrating training all throughout California, we aspire to widen our impact throughout the nation and eventually internationally.

Want to become apart of the change? Join today! Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or concerns at ryancabote808@gmail.com. Thank you for your time!
Apply to become a part of the team!

Simply Neuroscience Action Potential Advising Program

Mentorship

Simply Neuroscience, a student-led non-profit organization works to expand interdisciplinary neuroscience education, outreach, and awareness for students. Over the past year, Simply Neuroscience has expanded to include a broader community of over 20,000 individuals spanning 49 U.S. states and 113 countries.

The recent launch of our Action Potential Advising Program (APAP) works to virtually connect young neuroscience students (“advisees”) with older professionals (“advisors”) to provide educational guidance and mentorship. The APAP’s mission is to bridge gaps in early neuroscience and psychology education through creating an international, centralized mentorship space that supports both STEM and humanities students.

Stanford Research Study - participants needed

Hi! We’re researchers in the Psychology Department at Stanford University, and we’re recruiting participants to take part in two online studies.

Study 1 takes about 25 minutes, and you will receive a $5 Amazon gift card for your participation. Here is some more info:

- In this study, you will play seven child-friendly drawing and guessing games and then answer some questions about yourself.
- You must be at least 18 years old and have lived in the US most of your life.
- To participate, visit the following link on a laptop or desktop using Google Chrome or Firefox: https://langcog.stanford.edu/expts/RR_adults/expE.html

Study 2 takes about 20 minutes, and you will receive a $4 Amazon gift card for your participation. Here is some more info:

- In this study, you will pick things that are related and then answer some questions about yourself.
- You must be at least 18 years old and have lived in the US most of your life.
- To participate, visit this link: https://langcog.stanford.edu/expts/coglink/index_E.html

You can participate in both studies (but only once per study).

For your $4, $5, or $9 Amazon gift card: Note your Participant ID (displayed on screen at the beginning and end of the study) and email it to langcogculture@gmail.com. If you participate in both studies, please include both Participant IDs in your email. We will email you your gift card within 3 days.

Please help us spread the word by forwarding this message to any friends and family who might be interested in participating!

New Minor in American Studies

The minor in American Studies is designed to help students write and communicate more clearly, especially those students in large social science and science programs. It will also encourage students to take advantage of the one of largest and most diverse course curricula available anywhere in the world as well as learn to think deeply about issues and commitments.
arising from their work in their major programs in light of the specific American contexts of culture, politics, policy, forms of media, and so on.

A minor in American Studies will culminate with a "capstone" project to be completed in a seminar course taught by AS affiliated faculty, where students will research and write (and in some cases, web publish or present in public venues) in-depth "features" aimed at communicating ideas and scholarship to a wide audience.

For more information, please visit our website and contact me if you have questions.

IRLE Student Publication Series

As part of IRLEs goal to advance the next generation of labor and employment scholars, our Student Research Brief series highlights student-led academic research conducted by UC Berkeley graduate and undergraduate students. Check out recent student research or make a submission.

Haas BASE Summer Business Program

If you are free this Summer we have a unique summer business program at Haas. We will facilitate the Haas BASE Summer Program remotely in 2021, including instruction, career workshops and company events. We have reduced the cost of the program from $10,000 to $8,500 for 2021. Partial financial aid may be available.

If you are free this summer here is an opportunity to complement your Cal degree with a rigorous summer business program and add the words "Haas" and "Business" to your resume.

The Haas School of Business invites you to consider the BASE Summer Program (Business for Arts, Sciences and Engineering). BASE is a six-week business boot camp that enables non-business majors and recent graduates to take business courses while earning full academic credit. Some former BASE students have gone on to earn MBA degrees, while others have accepted jobs in marketing, product development, consulting, financial services, and technology. BASE students receive many benefits, including custom workshops, company events, small class size with top professors and Haas Alumni Network benefits.

The ideal participant of the BASE Program is an undergraduate student majoring in liberal arts, sciences or engineering. BASE is the only premier business summer program or institute where students can earn units.

What Our Alumni Say about the Program

"After BASE I ended up getting a job at Oracle in their sales department and I love it here. I believe that BASE was a huge component of the success I had getting this job, and knowing how to operate in a business setting. I also would like to note the reaction people have when they find out I went to Haas. I've received a lot of positive feedback from recruiters, managers, and my peers." Collin Barlow, UC Berkeley Psychology.

"They call it Berkeley's hidden gem for a reason; its rigorous, exciting, fun, challenging, looks great on your resume, and it’s an amazing way to grow as a person and make connections with successful students from all over the world. It's a program that transforms complete strangers from all over the world into one big family that never wants to be apart. You are going to wish the program never ends. I would recommend the BASE program to everyone who wants to gain a deeper understanding of business, loves having fun, and wants to create memories and relationships that will last forever." Manvinder Singh, UC Irvine Economics.

"BASE was a wonderful and inspiring endeavor. Since the first day of orientation, I came to realize the competitiveness of the program because everyone has their own academic background, internship experience, and networks. Due to the fact that it is a 6-week intensive program, everything was fast-paced and the workload was extensive. However, I was able to manage my time effectively and successfully collaborate with classmates on class assignments. Additionally, the program has professional development workshops and my favorite one was a Negotiations workshop with Professor Holly Schroth. Overall, I strongly believe that the program helped me get ready for senior year because I came back with a different mentality, drive, and motivation! The BASE Program can equip you with the business knowledge and professional skills needed once you start off your career. It is a great investment for your future! The BASE Program exposed me to new ways of thinking, strategizing, and networking. Being in a room with top-ranked students from across the nation was inspirational and thankfully I was able to establish strong relationships with my classmates, professors, and staff." Edgardo Vazquez, UCLA Economics
"The BASE program gave me an essential, foundational business background that I continue to carry into my education, research, and more recently, internships. Particularly as chemical engineer with a technical background, companies like Chevron, AbbVie, and P&G have been impressed by my additional understanding of finance and marketing and the fact I attended the Haas Business School. This has distinguished me as an applicant in an incredibly competitive pool and led to multiple offers, even as a mere sophomore." Lauren Simitz, Northwestern University Chemical Engineering.

Partial Financial Aid for Berkeley Students
Some UC Berkeley students are eligible for partial summer financial aid which can partially cover the cost of the program. More information is here (BASE courses are 9 semester units in Summer Session D): http://financialaid.berkeley.edu/summer-aid

Application Process
We encourage you to apply as soon as possible given the popularity of the Program in the past 23 years. There is no application fee.

Check out the BASE website if you have any questions. We look forward to reading your application!
