Berkeley Food Institute Events with Bettina Elias Siegel, 3/2/2020

Please join the Berkeley Food Institute on March 2 for two events with Bettina Elias Siegel, author of Kid Food: The Challenge of Feeding Children in a Highly Processed World.
Student Session With Bettina Elias Siegel
March 2, 3 – 4pm
338 Koshland Hall, UC Berkeley
See details here: https://www.facebook.com/events/482137419132849/

Come meet Bettina Elias Siegel, author of Kid Food: The Challenge of Feeding Children in a Highly Processed World. A graduate of Yale College and Harvard Law School, Bettina practiced intellectual property, advertising, and food law in New York City for almost a decade before turning to a career in freelance writing. In early 2010, she became interested in improving the food in her children’s school district, Houston ISD, and soon after launched The Lunch Tray, a blog about all things related to “kids and food, in school and out.” Bettina will be speaking at a public event on March 2, 2020 from 5:30 – 7:30pm. Students have a special opportunity to meet with Bettina from 3 – 4pm in 338 Koshland Hall to discuss her path to activism, areas of research and advocacy for her, and the topic of food policy in general. Bring your questions and ideas!

Public Event: Fixing Our Children’s Food Environment
March 2, 5:30 – 7:30pm
David Brower Center Tamalpais Room, 2150 Allston Way, Berkeley
Register here: https://www.eventbrite.com/e/fixing-our-childrens-food-environment-tickets-93133744537

An evening to inspire solutions and raise funds for the Berkeley Food Institute, featuring Bettina Elias Siegel.

Please join the Berkeley Food Institute in welcoming Bettina Elias Siegel to discuss her new book Kid Food: The Challenge of Feeding Children in a Highly Processed World. What are the roles of parents and non-parents in ensuring that all of our community’s children have access to safe, affordable, and nourishing food? How have some junk food companies sought to leverage every possible opportunity to sell their products to impressionable young future customers—and what can we do to push back? How can research and practice inform public policy on children’s food issues? We will explore these and other questions in a lively interactive forum where your questions and ideas are welcome.

Bettina is a mother of two and a nationally recognized writer and advocate on issues relating to children and food policy. A graduate of Yale College and Harvard Law School, Bettina practiced intellectual property, advertising, and food law in New York City before she became interested in improving the food in her children’s school district, Houston ISD. Soon after she launched The Lunch Tray, a blog about all things related to “kids and food, in school and out.” Bettina spearheaded three victorious Change.org petition campaigns relating to school children and food, making her one of the most successful petitioners in the organization’s history. She’s the author of the free 50-page e-book, The Lunch Tray’s Guide to Getting Junk Food Out of Your Child’s Classroom, which has been downloaded free by thousands of parents and is now in its second edition.
Join us for a book signing and reception with Bettina Elias Siegel after the event.

The event is co-sponsored by Berkeley Food Institute (BFI), the UCANR Nutrition Policy Institute (NPI), and Be Well at Work Faculty and Staff Health Programs.

This event is a fundraiser, with no one turned away for lack of funds. Suggested donation: $5 – $500, please make your donation here to support the Berkeley Food Institute. Registration is highly recommended.

Primary Election Vote, 3/3/20

As I'm sure you're aware, our generation makes up a significant population of eligible voters in the US yet historically, we've had abysmally low turnout rates. With the March 3rd primaries closing in on us, it is vitally important that we remind our campus to exercise their fundamental rights as citizens. The consequences of the upcoming general election, as well as the primary, will reverberate for generations to come, so we can't afford to see young voters sit this one out.

EECS, CS, & EIS Social, 3/4/20

The EECS Department is hosting our first ever social event for students pursuing our three minors, EECS, CS, and EIS. An advisor from the Career Center will be present to help students with resume and career advice. Snacks provided!

Teach for Splash at Berkeley, 3/8/20

Instill your passion about any subject to high schoolers around the Bay Area! Splash a student organization that brings over 400 high school students to Berkeley’s campus for a day of unlimited learning through classes taught by Berkeley students (YOU)! This year, Splash will be on Sunday, March 8th.

Splash is a low-commitment, high impact educational outreach opportunity that also gives you agency on your course. You choose the topic, how many students can enroll in your class, and how many sessions you teach throughout the day. If you would like to teach with others, you can also have co-facilitator(s) in a course.

Also, all teachers get a free t-shirt and lunch!

If you or your friend(s) are interested in teaching a course to high school students, sign up to register as a teacher here.

The tentative deadline to sign up to teach a class is February 11th! The day of Splash is March 8th.

Don’t know what exactly to teach? Know what you want to teach but want some feedback? This year, we are also hosting two optional teacher training sessions for those who are interested on Saturday, February 8th and Saturday from 2-3pm, February 22nd from 2-3:30pm. You can RSVP here at bit.ly/SPLASHTACHERWS.

If you have any questions, feel free to reach out to us at splash.berkeley@gmail.com.

Shame and Aging - ONLINE
Healing the Shame of Aging in a Society that Worships Youth

A Workshop for Therapists and Helping Professionals with Sheila Rubin, LMFT, RDT/BCT and Bret Lyon, PhD, SEP

Online using Zoom – Live and Recorded
4 Fridays: March 20, 27, April 3 and 17 (No class April 10)
10am–1:30pm Pacific Time

$375 full price / $350 with full payment by February 14, 2020
Special price for interns

13 CE credits available (See website for details) - CAMFT CE provider #134393

We all go through it. No one is immune. And nothing produces more universal shame in our society than aging. Whereas many societies have deep respect for people as they age and see a vital role for elders, our society still worships youth.

In this workshop, we will explore and learn to be more comfortable with our own aging process. And we will explore ways to help clients talk about, explore and heal their own shame around aging. We will:

- Discover ways to help clients become aware of the many messages they received and continue to receive about aging and body image from family and society.
- Learn ways to help clients cope with the shame of not being able to do all that they once did.
- Understand counter-shaming techniques to help ourselves and our clients find pride and joy in the new reality—seeing that there are real gains as well as losses in this new stage of life.
- Work with the shame that can cause and result from sicknesses and injuries.
- Identify challenges in being looked at as unimportant and “not up to par” by a youth-oriented society and the layers of shame that can occur.
- Discover how to make the necessary adjustments so we can regain access to the life force and creativity that we still have in a grounded and embodied way.
- Begin to shift and transform cultural stereotypes about aging by finding a reservoir of vitality, inner vision and clear action for the next phase of life, that may be hidden under shame!

There is no prerequisite for this course. It can be taken by itself or as part of a sequence.

TO REGISTER, please visit the Schedule page at www.HealingShame.com.

For more information, call Sheila at 415-820-3974 or email Sheila@HealingShame.com.

The California Cognitive Science Conference is an opportunity for researchers (especially undergraduates) to exhibit their original work in the Cognitive Sciences. Poster presenters at the conference will be able to mingle with and receive feedback from professional scientists and our broader conference audience. Submitted abstracts will be evaluated based on interest and appeal to a wide audience; scientific and professional merit; clarity; and contribution to knowledge, practices, and policies. Submitted work does not have to fit the theme, but it can! As in previous years, we will be awarding a prize to the top poster, as selected by a popular vote by our attendees.

Submit your 300 word or less abstract here by March 31 to be considered.

You will be notified about the status of your submission no later than April 10th, 2020. If your submission is accepted, you will be able to purchase a discounted poster presenter ticket to the conference.

The 2020-2021 Greater Good Science Center Research Fellowship Application window OPENS Monday Feb 10, 2020.
The Greater Good Science Center (GGSC) at UC Berkeley announces new one-year fellowship opportunities for UC Berkeley undergraduate and graduate students whose work relates to our mission: championing research into how social connection, kindness, belonging, and community support the happy, meaningful lives of individuals and society.
Former fellows have come from the departments of psychology, integrative biology, sociology, neuroscience, urban studies, and other departments; the schools of public health, education, social welfare, and Haas business; and the UC Berkeley-UCSF Joint Medical Program. Students can apply using our online application starting Feb 10, 2020. The application deadline is Friday, April 3, 2020.

Timeline:
• Application Window: February 10–April 3, 2020
• Winners Announced: May 15, 2020
• Funding Window: September 1, 2020–August 31, 2021
Funding:
• Two fellowships will be awarded to undergraduates: one GGSC Fellowship (up to $2,500), one Goldberg Fellowship (up to $5,000)
• Four fellowships will be awarded to graduate students: three GGSC Fellowships (up to $10,000), one Hornaday Fellowship (up to $15,000)

Applicants may contact GGSC science director Emiliana Simon-Thomas for more information at ggscfellowships@berkeley.edu. More information about the GGSC can be found at http://greatergood.berkeley.edu/about

Undergraduate Poster Session- Black Doctoral Western Regional Conference, 4/4/20

The Black Doctoral Network welcomes undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students to participate in our Western Regional Conference, themed “Breakthrough to Excellence.” If you have a research project, thesis, or dissertation you would like to present as a poster at a professional conference, the poster session is a good opportunity for you to showcase your academic work and receive constructive feedback from scholars in a friendly and engaging environment.

The poster session is part of the Black Doctoral Network Western Regional Conference taking place on Saturday, April 4, 2020 in Los Angeles, California at Loyola Marymount University. Abstracts may be submitted by current undergraduates from all racial backgrounds on any topic.

The abstract must be no more than 300 words in length. Include the title of the poster, issues you address in your work, your methods and theories, and results/conclusions of your research (if available). All undergraduate poster presenters will take part in a poster competition. We will send decision notifications on a weekly basis starting February 3.

For more information on the conference visit: blackphdnetwork.org/regional

Educational Opportunity Program

eop.berkeley.edu
Frosh admission decisions will be released on March 26th and EOP is preparing to welcome the newest golden bears to our family! We are well on our way to celebrate and welcome them at the EOP New Admit Reception on Saturday April 11th from 11am-3pm in the Clark Kerr Krutch Theatre. Our hope is that they feel supported by our amazing community as they embark on their higher education journey!

There are two ways that you can help for the event! Students can sign-up for phone banking shifts to contact newly admitted students to confirm and or update any information about their RSVP. You can also volunteer during the Saturday event and choose from a variety of work stations. Volunteers can sign-up for one or both roles.

Submit this form to sign-up as a volunteer

Please make sure to thoroughly read each description's role and feel free to email us with any questions at eopyield@gmail.com. Your volunteer time and assistance is greatly appreciated in helping plan and make this event happen!

➢ SLC Writing Program

With midterm season revving up, we can’t wait to support you with your papers! Midterm essays are a great opportunity to showcase the knowledge you’ve gained and present your original arguments about what you are learning in class. One of the best ways to ensure that you’re starting with a solid foundation is by getting a fresh perspective from an experienced peer.

You can meet one-to-one with a tutor in any of our formats! If you’d like to unpack your prompts and brainstorm ideas, stop by for a 30-minute Drop-in! Further along with your writing? Book a 50-minute Appointment for tailored feedback on the structure of your drafts. If you’re working on a long term assignment, like a research or capstone project, check out our Weekly format! RSVP to attend an orientation to find out how you can benefit from consistent support throughout the writing process.
United States Public Interest Research Group Fellowship

Our mission is to advocate for the public interest—to speak out for a healthier, safer world in which we’re freer to pursue our own individual well-being and the common good.

Whether it’s working to stop the overuse of antibiotics in agriculture, addressing our country’s plastic waste crisis, or alerting people to threats in the marketplace, the problems we work on aren’t progressive or conservative. They’re just problems that our country shouldn’t tolerate any longer.

If you are ready to roll up your sleeves and win more results for the public, we’d love to hear from you.

You won’t just sit behind a desk. You’ll be out in the real world, working to protect consumers and enable citizens to lead healthier, safer, more secure lives. You’ll be recruiting new groups to join a coalition, speaking in a church basement or town hall to win a new endorsement, organizing a news event or rally, meeting with an editorial board, or doing whatever else it takes to get results. You’ll run a grassroots campaign office each summer during your fellowship where you’ll hire and manage a staff of 20 canvassers to raise money, build our organization and membership, and help win one of our key campaigns.
This is a one-year program, expressly designed to prepare future leaders with U.S. PIRG. We look for smarts, leadership experience, top-notch written and verbal skills, and an eagerness to learn. We value organizing experience, including building campus groups.

The target annual compensation for this position is $28,000 in the first year. U.S. PIRG offers a competitive benefits package. We also offer an excellent training program and opportunities for advancement.

We’re currently hiring for positions in multiple locations across the country, including Boston, Chicago, Washington DC, Los Angeles, Philadelphia and Portland, ME. If you’re flexible, you can apply for multiple locations. We accept applications on a rolling basis. Positions start in August 2020. Immediate positions also available.

BASE Summer Business Program at Haas 7/6/20-8/14/20

If you are free this July and August we have a unique summer business program at Haas. Only 50 students are admitted each summer. If you are interested we encourage you to apply soon given the popularity of our program over the last 22 years.

The Haas School of Business invites you to consider the BASE Summer Program (Business for Arts, Sciences and Engineering). BASE is a six-week business boot camp that enables non-business majors and recent graduates to take business courses while earning full academic credit. Some former BASE students have gone on to earn MBA degrees, while others have accepted jobs in marketing, product development, consulting, financial services, and technology. BASE students receive many benefits, including custom workshops, company visits, lunches, small class size with top professors and Haas Alumni Network benefits.

The ideal participant of the BASE Program is an undergraduate student majoring in liberal arts, sciences or engineering. BASE is the only premier business summer program or institute where students can earn units.
You can visit our Facebook page to connect with our alumni on-line.

Partial Financial Aid for Berkeley Students
Some UC Berkeley students are eligible for partial summer financial aid which can partially cover the cost of the program. More information is here (BASE courses are 9 semester units in Summer Session D): http://financialaid.berkeley.edu/summer-aid

Application Process
We encourage you to apply as soon as possible given the popularity of the Program in the past 22 years. There is no application fee.

Check out the BASE website if you have any questions. We look forward to reading your application!

➤ Summer Discounts & Opportunities for students

We are aware that world events may cause some students to choose not to return to their home this coming summer. As you advise students we wanted to pass along some information that may be of help to these students. To assist students who may not have summer housing in place, Cal
Housing is offering a $200 discount to the first 200 students to register for housing for the 12-week summer session (Session AD). Please visit the Cal Housing website for details.

For those students that choose to remain in Berkeley for the summer, Berkeley Summer Sessions offers options that can help keep their academics on track or gain a new credential.

There are a number of minors/certificates that can be completed in 12-weeks, such as the minors in Global Public Health, Digital Journalism, Race and the Law, Digital Humanities or a certificate in film production. For more information on minors/certificates go to summerminors.berkeley.edu.

Beyond these options, Summer Sessions offers:

- More than 600 different courses in 99 different academic disciplines
- Over two dozen fully online courses: summer.berkeley.edu/online
- Internship programs in Boston, Los Angeles, and the Bay Area
- Scholarships and financial aid available to eligible students

Summer Sessions offers Berkeley classes compressed into 3, 6, 8, or twelve-week sessions, giving students the flexibility to make the most of their summer. Enrollment is now open. Learn more at summer.berkeley.edu.
