➢ UCSF Master’s in Clinical Degree Program, 3/16/20

We wanted to bring to your attention our Master’s Degree Program in Clinical Research at the University of California, San Francisco (UCSF). Founded in 2002, our program provides comprehensive theoretical instruction and practical training in a variety of methods of observational and experimental health-related research with human subjects. Graduates are prepared to work in the field of clinical and epidemiologic research in either academia, industry, or public health. Many graduates have used our program as a stepping stone for PhD training or professional school (medical, dental, or nursing). Application deadline is March 16, 2020, but we will begin reviewing applications on January 1, 2020.

Shame and Aging - ONLINE
Healing the Shame of Aging in a Society that Worships Youth
A Workshop for Therapists and Helping Professionals with Sheila Rubin, LMFT, RDT/BCT and Bret Lyon, PhD, SEP

Online using Zoom – Live and Recorded
4 Fridays: March 20, 27, April 3 and 17 (No class April 10)
10am–1:30pm Pacific Time

$375 full price / $350 with full payment by February 14, 2020
Special price for interns

13 CE credits available (See website for details) - CAMFT CE provider #134393

We all go through it. No one is immune. And nothing produces more universal shame in our society than aging. Whereas many societies have deep respect for people as they age and see a vital role for elders, our society still worships youth.

In this workshop, we will explore and learn to be more comfortable with our own aging process. And we will explore ways to help clients talk about, explore and heal their own shame around aging. We will:

• Discover ways to help clients become aware of the many messages they received and continue to receive about aging and body image from family and society.
• Learn ways to help clients cope with the shame of not being able to do all that they once did.
• Understand counter-shaming techniques to help ourselves and our clients find pride and joy in the new reality—seeing that there are real gains as well as losses in this new stage of life.
• Work with the shame that can cause and result from sicknesses and injuries.
• Identify challenges in being looked at as unimportant and “not up to par” by a youth-oriented society and the layers of shame that can occur.
• Discover how to make the necessary adjustments so we can regain access to the life force and creativity that we still have in a grounded and embodied way.
• Begin to shift and transform cultural stereotypes about aging by finding a reservoir of vitality, inner vision and clear action for the next phase of life, that may be hidden under shame!

There is no prerequisite for this course. It can be taken by itself or as part of a sequence.

TO REGISTER, please visit the Schedule page at www.HealingShame.com.

For more information, call Sheila at 415-820-3974 or email Sheila@HealingShame.com.

Anne H. Scott Memorial Undergraduate Scholarship in Chinese Studies, 3/29/20

The Anne H. Scott Memorial Undergraduate Scholarship in Chinese Studies is funded through the Anne H. Scott Endowment in Chinese Studies at IEAS, a gift of Hugh A. Scott in memory of his late wife, Anne H. Scott (née Anne Hanrahan), and her dedication to Chinese historical studies. The Scholarship supports an undergraduate student emphasizing Chinese studies at UC Berkeley. It is intended to assist students who have studied the Chinese language and who wish to use their language training to study Chinese history or culture, or to translate historical texts. This year one award of $2,500 is available.

Deadline: Wednesday, April 1, 2020, 5:00 p.m.

Follow this link for the full announcement and application procedures. Questions?

Summer 2020 Undergraduate Research & Study Awards, 3/30/20

All majors are welcome to apply.

UNDERGRADUATE AWARDS
FOR CLASSICS RESEARCH & STUDY ABROAD

J. K. Anderson Travel Award
Intended to support undergraduate summer study and travel in classical lands. Preference given to undergraduate students of Classics attending summer programs offered by the American School of Classical Studies: Summer Session and the American Academy in Rome: Summer Program in Archaeology. The term "students of Classics" is meant to include not only declared majors, but also students of Greek, Latin, or Classics who have not (or not yet) declared a major in one of those fields.

Classics Summer Study Abroad Award
The CSSA Award supports students pursuing an aspect of Classics while abroad during the summer. This could be travel, study, excavation, or a combination of these activities. The award is restricted to declared majors in the Department.

Dimitrios Vlahos Memorial Travel Award
Awarded to support summer study in Greece for an undergraduate student enrolled in the Department of Classics in the College of Letters and Science.

In order to apply, please submit a Letter of Application and Budget to the Classics Undergraduate Faculty Advisors, Professor Shelton (shelton@berkeley.edu) and Professor MacRae (duncanmacrae@berkeley.edu) via email by Monday, March 30, 2020.

Call for Undergrad & Grad Student AAPISC Nominations & Applications, 3/30/20

As part of UC Berkeley’s commitment to thriving Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) communities on campus, the Asian American and Pacific Islander Standing Committee (AAPISC) was formed in 2019 under the executive sponsorship of the Vice Chancellor for Equity and Inclusion, Oscar Dubón, to identify recommendations and strategies to the Chancellor. and her cabinet about how to improve campus climate for AAPI undergraduate and graduate students, staff, and faculty.

We are writing to invite UC Berkeley undergraduate and graduate students to serve as members of AAPISC for the 2020-2021 academic year. You may apply to be on the committee (no nomination required), or you may nominate someone. Nominations are due by 5:00 pm on Monday, March 16th, and completed applications are due by 5:00 pm on Monday, March 30th.

For additional information about the nomination and/or application processes, or the work of AAPISC, please do not hesitate to contact us directly.

With best regards,

Marcia Gee Riley, AAPISC Co-Chair
mgriley@berkeley.edu

Lisa Hirai Tsuchitani, AAPISC Co-Chair
lhtsuchitani@berkeley.edu

UC Berkeley Asian American and Pacific Islander Standing Committee (AAPISC)

Mission

The work of AAPISC is a comprehensive effort by AAPI undergraduate and graduate students, staff, faculty, and alumni to assess and provide recommendations on how to realize for members of our community the stated mission of the UC Berkeley Division of Equity & Inclusion “to create a campus where all Berkeley students, faculty, and staff feel respected, supported, and valued.”

Objectives

The objectives of AAPISC shall include but not be limited to the following:

- Improve the recruitment and retention rates of underrepresented AAPI ethnic groups at both the undergraduate and graduate student levels;
- Develop and strengthen existing social, personal, and academic support systems for AAPI students;
- Expand existing professional development and career enhancement opportunities and resources for AAPI staff;
- Increase the racial, ethnic, and gender diversity of those occupying critical campus senior management positions; and
- Ensure the continued growth and vitality of teaching and research efforts by and about Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders on campus.

Call for Abstracts
Application Deadline: March 31, 2020 at 11:59 PM

The California Cognitive Science Conference is an opportunity for researchers (especially undergraduates) to exhibit their original work in the Cognitive Sciences. Poster presenters at the conference will be able to mingle with and receive feedback from professional scientists and our broader conference audience. Submitted abstracts will be evaluated based on interest and appeal to a wide audience; scientific and professional merit; clarity; and contribution to knowledge, practices, and policies. Submitted work does not have to fit the theme, but it can! As in previous years, we will be awarding a prize to the top poster, as selected by a popular vote by our attendees.

Submit your 300 word or less abstract here by March 31 to be considered.

You will be notified about the status of your submission no later than April 10th, 2020. If your submission is accepted, you will be able to purchase a discounted poster presenter ticket to the conference.

You can find more information and register for the conference at https://cssa.berkeley.edu/ccsc20.
Greater Good Science Center Fellowship Application Open, 4/3/2020

We welcome researchers from a broad spectrum of academic disciplines at UC Berkeley, with an emphasis on the social-behavioral sciences. The Greater Good Science Center (GGSC) at UC Berkeley announces new one-year fellowship opportunities for UC Berkeley undergraduate and graduate students whose work relates to our mission: championing research into how social connection, kindness, belonging, and community support the happy, meaningful lives of individuals and society.

Based at UC Berkeley and led by social psychology professor Dacher Keltner, the GGSC is unique in its commitment to both science and practice: Not only do we sponsor groundbreaking scientific research into social and emotional well-being, we help people apply insights from research to their personal and professional lives.

Previous GGSC fellows have secured top positions at universities nationwide, providing a significant boost to the science of a meaningful life, including topics like awe, compassion, resilience, reconciliation, altruism, and happiness. Check out this recent article from GGSC fellow Jia Wei Zhang, which describes his studies showing that self-compassion promotes personal improvement.

Timeline:
- Application Window: February 10–April 3, 2020
- Winners Announced: May 15, 2020
- Funding Window: September 1, 2020–August 31, 2021

Funding:
- Two fellowships will be awarded to undergraduates: one GGSC Fellowship (up to $2,500), one Goldberg Fellowship (up to $5,000)
- Four fellowships will be awarded to graduate students: three GGSC Fellowships (up to $10,000), one Hornaday Fellowship (up to $15,000)

Former fellows have come from the departments of psychology, integrative biology, sociology, neuroscience, urban studies, and other departments; the schools of public health, education, social welfare, and Haas business; and the UC Berkeley-UCSF Joint Medical Program. Students can apply using our online application starting Feb 10, 2020. The application deadline is Friday, April 3, 2020.

Applicants may contact GGSC science director Emiliana Simon-Thomas for more information at ggscfellowships@berkeley.edu. More information about the GGSC can be found at http://greatergood.berkeley.edu/about.

University of Nebraska-Lincoln Diversifying Psychology Weekend, 4/3/20
The University of Nebraska-Lincoln will be holding its second annual Diversifying Psychology Weekend. This weekend event is intended to help workshop doctoral program application materials for applicants from underrepresented backgrounds. We define underrepresented and diversity broadly.

The weekend will take place July 31 through August 2. Travel, lodging, and most meals will be covered during the event. All attendees will also be eligible to receive payment for graduate application fees at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. Applications are due April 3 and we anticipate notifying all attendees by May 1.

Undergraduate Poster Session - Black Doctoral Western Regional Conference, 4/4/20

The Black Doctoral Network welcomes undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students to participate in our Western Regional Conference, themed “Breakthrough to Excellence.” If you have a research project, thesis, or dissertation you would like to present as a poster at a professional conference, the poster session is a good opportunity for you to showcase your academic work and receive constructive feedback from scholars in a friendly and engaging environment.
The poster session is part of the Black Doctoral Network Western Regional Conference taking place on Saturday, April 4, 2020 in Los Angeles, California at Loyola Marymount University. Abstracts may be submitted by current undergraduates from all racial backgrounds on any topic.

The abstract must be no more than 300 words in length. Include the title of the poster, issues you address in your work, your methods and theories, and results/conclusions of your research (if available). All undergraduate poster presenters will take part in a poster competition. We will send decision notifications on a weekly basis starting February 3.

Dr. Carol Christ
Office of the Chancellor, University of California Berkeley
200 California Hall #1500
Berkeley, CA 94720

To Chancellor Christ:

Over the past few months, graduate students at UC Santa Cruz and across the UC system have mobilized and made demands for a COLA (Cost of Living Adjustment). We are writing this letter in full support and solidarity with UC Berkeley graduate students and all UC graduate students striking for a COLA. We voice our support among thousands of other students, faculty, staff, and community members on our campus and beyond.

On February 21, 2020, in a Letter of Demands delivered to your office as well as the offices of Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost Paul Alivasatos and Graduate Division Dean Lisa Garcia Bedolla, UC Berkeley COLA organizers and graduate students outlined these following demands: 1) A COLA for every graduate student, regardless of residence, visa, documentation, employment, or funding status, to bring them out of rent burden—without raising tuition or campus fees, without cutting graduate admissions, and without retaliation; 2) To drop all threats of retaliation against striking students at UCSC; 3) The University stop acting as a for-profit landlord; 4) The University works with COLA organizers to ensure that all members of the UC Berkeley community can meet the basic human needs of food and shelter, and freedom from police violence and intimidation.

As a university, UC Berkeley claims to support diversity, equity, and inclusion—yet without adequate support for graduate students and all campus community members, these promises of recruitment and retention of marginalized communities are hollow and ultimately only serve the university, rather than the communities the university claims to serve. We strongly urge administrators to meet the demands outlined by COLA organizers, cease any and all retaliation against striking students and workers, and immediately reinstate the fired graduate students at UC Santa Cruz. We echo these demands of a COLA for all graduate students to meet their basic needs, as well as for the demilitarization of UCPD to ensure that all students, faculty, staff, and community members of color feel safe on this campus, regardless of legal status. Additionally, as undergraduates of UC Berkeley, we support any and all graduate students’ efforts to ensure their basic needs are met, including the requirements necessary to maintain their visas. In solidarity with our GSIs, we demand that there is no retaliation against any UC Berkeley graduate or undergraduate student for participating in a grading or full working strike or other forms of political action in order to gain a cost of living adjustment.

If the UC Berkeley Administration fails to formally respond to the demands of and meet with COLA organizers on our campus by the given deadline of March 6, 2020, we are prepared to follow the lead of graduate students in the Department of African American Studies at Berkeley and other UCs and declare ourselves strike-ready.

Signed,

With midterm season revving up, we can’t wait to support you with your papers! Midterm essays are a great opportunity to showcase the knowledge you’ve gained and present your original arguments about what you are learning in class. One of the best ways to ensure that you’re starting with a solid foundation is by getting a fresh perspective from an experienced peer.

You can meet one-to-one with a tutor in any of our formats! If you’d like to unpack your prompts and brainstorm ideas, stop by for a 30-minute Drop-in! Further along with your writing? Book a 50-minute Appointment for tailored feedback on the structure of your drafts. If you’re working on a long term assignment, like a research or capstone project, check out our Weekly format! RSVP to attend an orientation to find out how you can benefit from consistent support throughout the writing process.

United States Public Interest Research Group Fellowship

Our mission is to advocate for the public interest—to speak out for a healthier, safer world in which we’re freer to pursue our own individual well-being and the common good.

Whether it’s working to stop the overuse of antibiotics in agriculture, addressing our country’s plastic waste crisis, or alerting people to threats in the marketplace, the problems we work on aren’t progressive or conservative. They’re just problems that our country shouldn’t tolerate any longer.
If you are ready to roll up your sleeves and win more results for the public, we’d love to hear from you.

You won’t just sit behind a desk. You’ll be out in the real world, working to protect consumers and enable citizens to lead healthier, safer, more secure lives. You’ll be recruiting new groups to join a coalition, speaking in a church basement or town hall to win a new endorsement, organizing a news event or rally, meeting with an editorial board, or doing whatever else it takes to get results. You’ll run a grassroots campaign office each summer during your fellowship where you’ll hire and manage a staff of 20 canvassers to raise money, build our organization and membership, and help win one of our key campaigns.

This is a one-year program, expressly designed to prepare future leaders with U.S. PIRG. We look for smarts, leadership experience, top-notch written and verbal skills, and an eagerness to learn. We value organizing experience, including building campus groups.

The target annual compensation for this position is $28,000 in the first year. U.S. PIRG offers a competitive benefits package. We also offer an excellent training program and opportunities for advancement.

We’re currently hiring for positions in multiple locations across the country, including Boston, Chicago, Washington DC, Los Angeles, Philadelphia and Portland, ME. If you’re flexible, you can apply for multiple locations. We accept applications on a rolling basis. Positions start in August 2020. Immediate positions also available.

➢ BASE Summer Business Program at Haas 7/6/20-8/14/20

If you are free this July and August we have a unique summer business program at Haas. Only 50 students are admitted each summer. If you are interested we encourage you to apply soon given the popularity of our program over the last 22 years.
The Haas School of Business invites you to consider the BASE Summer Program (Business for Arts, Sciences and Engineering). BASE is a six-week business boot camp that enables non-business majors and recent graduates to take business courses while earning full academic credit. Some former BASE students have gone on to earn MBA degrees, while others have accepted jobs in marketing, product development, consulting, financial services, and technology. BASE students receive many benefits, including custom workshops, company visits, lunches, small class size with top professors and Haas Alumni Network benefits.

The ideal participant of the BASE Program is an undergraduate student majoring in liberal arts, sciences or engineering. BASE is the only premier business summer program or institute where students can earn units.

You can visit our Facebook page to connect with our alumni on-line.

Partial Financial Aid for Berkeley Students
Some UC Berkeley students are eligible for partial summer financial aid which can partially cover the cost of the program. More information is here (BASE courses are 9 semester units in Summer Session D): http://financialaid.berkeley.edu/summer-aid

Application Process
We encourage you to apply as soon as possible given the popularity of the Program in the past 22 years. There is no application fee.

Check out the BASE website if you have any questions. We look forward to reading your application!

➢ Summer Discounts & Opportunities for students

We are aware that world events may cause some students to choose not to return to their home this coming summer. As you advise students we wanted to pass along some information that may be of help to these students. To assist students who may not have summer housing in place, Cal Housing is offering a $200 discount to the first 200 students to register for housing for the 12-week summer session (Session AD). Please visit the Cal Housing website for details.

For those students that choose to remain in Berkeley for the summer, Berkeley Summer Sessions offers options that can help keep their academics on track or gain a new credential.

There are a number of minors/certificates that can be completed in 12-weeks, such as the minors in Global Public Health, Digital Journalism, Race and the Law, Digital Humanities or a certificate in film production. For more information on minors/certificates go to summerminors.berkeley.edu.

Beyond these options, Summer Sessions offers:

- More than 600 different courses in 99 different academic disciplines
- Over two dozen fully online courses: summer.berkeley.edu/online
Miscellaneous Opportunities: Week of March 16, 2020

- Internship programs in Boston, Los Angeles, and the Bay Area
- Scholarships and financial aid available to eligible students

Summer Sessions offers Berkeley classes compressed into 3, 6, 8, or twelve-week sessions, giving students the flexibility to make the most of their summer. Enrollment is now open. Learn more at summer.berkeley.edu.

You will be notified about the status of your submission no later than April 10th, 2020. If your submission is accepted, you will be able to purchase a discounted poster presenter ticket to the conference.

➢ Masters in Counseling

We are looking at recruiting students from your undergraduate program that may be interested in a Master of Counseling degree. We have five specialty tracks including our new Clinical Rehabilitation Counseling track in fall 2020. Also, we are part of the Western Regional Graduate Program (WRGP) where students tuition would be at the in-state rate.

We are accepting applications through July 1, 2020.
College of Health Professions
Master of Counseling

The Department of Counseling offers one of the nation’s premier Master of Counseling programs on both the Pocatello and Meridian campuses.

Pocatello campus specialty areas:
- Clinical Mental Health Counseling
- Marriage, Couple and Family Counseling
- School Counseling
- Student Affairs Counseling

Meridian campus specialty area:
- Clinical Mental Health Counseling

Application Process
Master of Counseling

Application must be submitted by January 15 to be considered for admission for the next fall semester.

Admission to the Department of Counseling master’s program is based on a variety of criteria outlined in the ISU Graduate Catalog. In addition, admission is highly competitive. Satisfactory completion of entry-level graduate school requirements does not guarantee acceptance into the Department of Counseling.

Interviews are tentatively scheduled for late January or early February (ISU-Pocatello) and late January (ISU-Meridian).

Notification of admission decisions tentatively scheduled as follows:
- ISU-Pocatello—Approximately 2/15-3/1
- ISU-Meridian—Approximately 2/15-3/1

The Master of Counseling program involves a minimum of two years of full-time study or the equivalent at the Pocatello campus.

The Clinical Mental Health major is offered as a three-year program at the ISU-Meridian Campus.

Students are involved in both common core courses and professional courses for each specialty area. Extensive practicum and internship experiences are also required.
