Drama Therapy Seminar Information, 4/14/19

Alexis Maron is an experienced Drama Therapy professional based in Orange County. She graduated from UCLA in 2003 and from NYU in 2010, where she earned her M.A. in Drama Therapy.

Her graciousness and commitment to teaching has brought her to UC Berkeley, offering a two-part instructional seminar series on Drama Therapy available to UC Berkeley students and faculty from across departments on April 14th (the day after Cal Day). Drama Therapy is the intentional use of drama and/or theater processes to achieve therapeutic goals. This seminar offers participants the opportunity to both learn the principles of Drama Therapy and experience employing them. Drama Therapy serves as a promising career path for individuals passionate about social service, mental health, and performance, and this seminar provides a taste of the practice for participants to experience.

We invite you to participate in this groundbreaking seminar. Registration is limited and on a first-come, first-serve basis, so reserve your spot ASAP. Participants must attend the lecture seminar session on April 14th from 10-12 to attend the experiential seminar session from 1-3. Please come prepared with a notebook and pen.

To learn more about Drama Therapy, as well as Alexis’ practice, click here: http://alexismaron.com/

Please feel free to email shayna_howlett@berkeley.edu with any questions.
Undergraduate and Graduate Gown Lending Project

Application Now Open, 4/19/19

We are pleased to announce that the EOP Graduation Gown Lending Project Spring 2019 application is now open! Graduation can be an exciting moment for students, however the cost of purchasing a cap and gown can be a burden that impede students from fully enjoying their academic achievement. GGLP’s mission focuses on alleviating the financial burden graduation expenses have on students. We are excited to continue extending our resources to Master and PhD students!

Gowns are distributed on a first come, first serve basis so students are encouraged to apply early. In order to qualify, a student must either be: 1) Low-income and/or 2) First Generation and/or 3) Historically Underrepresented, OR a Graduate Student. Two separate applications will be available and will be closing on Friday, April 19, 2019 at 11:59pm. Unsure of EOP status? Stop by the EOP office in 119 Cesar Chavez to be verified or apply to be EOP here.

For any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to email us at eop.gglp@gmail.com!

Harvard Summer Psychology of Diversity

Former Students Talk About Their PSYC 1507 Experience

WE ARE EXCITED TO BE OFFERING OUR ONLINE (LIVE) WEB CONFERENCE COURSE THE PSYCHOLOGY OF DIVERSITY WITH DR. MONA SUE WEISSMARK.
The Psychology of Diversity delves into the links between diversity and psychological processes at the individual, interpersonal, and international levels. The course investigates several basic questions.

Here are just a few of the questions our former students have investigated:

What is diversity?
What impact does diversity have on cross-group relationships?
How is diversity related to people’s perceptions of fairness, justice, and mental health?
What is the relevance of people’s perceptions of fairness, justice, and mental health to social problems and social change?

Date: June 22- August 10, 2019 (7 weeks)
Time: Tuesdays & Thursdays 6:30 - 9:30 pm EST
Location: Live Online Web Conference Harvard Summer Course using Zoom

This is a limited – enrollment Harvard Summer School course. Register here to save your spot.

Join Kalanjiyam at Berkeley!

Are you passionate about health, education, or helping create sustainable livelihoods? Interested in traveling and experiencing different cultures? Do you want to make a global impact?

If you answered "yes" to any of the above, consider joining Kalanjiyam at Berkeley! An NGO based in South India, Kalanjiyam aims to promote the empowerment and development of rural Indian communities. We are currently recruiting a team of students to travel to the site for 2 weeks during the 2019-2020 Winter Break so they can implement their own projects in the villages. Examples of what has been done in the past includes visiting primary and secondary schools to deliver health education lessons, participating in mobile health clinics, leading workshops on mental health, nutrition and hygiene, and mentoring young girls on topics such as female empowerment and sexual health.

If you're interested in traveling to India and making an impact in global communities, apply now!

The application link is: https://goo.gl/forms/TlTPfbk0O9EJtD0N2

Applications are due by Saturday April 13, 11:59pm and we’ll be having an info session after spring break so keep an eye out for that!

Re-Home Your Books: Expand the Written World, 4/17/19

We are thrilled to introduce yet another initiative brought to you in collaboration with the SLC Language Exchange Program: Re-Home Your Books! Together with the LEP Global Book Club, we’re calling on you to help expand the written world of our global community. Through this endeavor, we aim to draw on your love of literature to further enrich Cal’s reading culture. We invite you to gift a book that you love and want others to experience! Feeling extra motivated? Submit a review to share what your book has meant to you.

To give your book, please bring it to room 136 of the Cesar Chavez Student Center any time between 2-4pm on Wednesdays or 10am-2pm on Thursdays, until Wednesday, April 17th.
Additional guidelines and information about our Re-Homing initiative can be found here: slc.berkeley.edu/rehome.

Lastly, please save the date for our Book Party on Friday, April 19th, at 12PM. Come check out the books gifted, peruse a review or two, and take home your next favorite read!

Healing from Trauma as Liberation Work, 4/11/19

Healing from Trauma as Liberation Work with Aunjel Fullington and ThaHood Alkemist
Thursday, April 11, 2019
5-8 PM
Multicultural Community Center
202 MLK Jr. Student Union
Free Dinner!
FB Event: https://www.facebook.com/events/2251623571562183/

AGENDA
5 PM: Doors Open
5:15 PM:
Learn how to self-massage using trauma-informed, gender-affirming, body-positive, and accessible bodywork.

Aunjel Fullington is a Black, queer, nonbinary healer and licensed Massage Therapist based in Los Angeles, California. His specialties include Thai Yoga Massage, Swedish Massage, Corporate Chair Massage, and teaching Self Massage.

With five years of experience practicing bodywork and eight years of trauma-informed practices, his journey from a sexual health educator to a queer body worker influences his current ideology: self-care is an active form of resistance.

6:45 PM: Free Dinner!

7 PM:
Join Ifasina in a three-part community circle to explore healing practices that can be incorporated into everyday life.

We will move through a practice in personal narrative and embodiment and find ways to engage culture & community as tools for healing and liberation.

TaMeicka "Ifasina" Clear, also known as ThaHood Alkemist, is a fat, Black, genderqueer-femme from the South, living in East Oakland. Ifasina has been doing advocacy work at the intersection of healing, creativity, and liberation for a little over 10 years. They believe that connection to culture, access to a beloved community, and the opportunity and time to cultivate the gifts and skills innately in us will forge a kind of leader committed to collective liberation.

Sponsored by The Hookup, Gender Equity Resource Center, and University Health Services. Funding from the Berkeley Wellness Fee.

Volunteer Opportunity at UCSF Department of Psychiatry
The Anna Molofsky Lab at UCSF studies the role of glial cells and the immune system in brain development. We are looking for a motivated graduating senior to join the lab starting in June or July, to participate in our research program and provide technical support. This is a great opportunity for an undergraduate student who would like to get more research experience before applying to PhD or MD/PhD programs. A two-year commitment would be ideal. View the job posting here (https://protect2.fireeye.com/url?k=f10d002b-ad4d6d7d-f10d2736-0cc47adb57f0-1570a71cd4d092bc&u=https://bit.ly/2OIDlr8), or contact us directly at anna.molofsky@ucsf.edu.

Research Opportunities at UCSF Memory & Aging Center
The Memory and Aging Center (MAC) at UCSF is a multidisciplinary research program investigating neurodegenerative disease across a broad spectrum of clinical and translational research settings. We are currently looking for up to 12 UC Berkeley student volunteers to join labs focused on topics ranging from socioemotional processes to prion diseases to healthy aging.
Students will have the opportunity to work with patients in a clinical setting, perform literature reviews, attend grand round lectures, analyze research data, and engage in various other educational and practical activities.

Interested students should expect to commit 8-16 hours per week to this position. Funding may be possible for underrepresented students through NIH Diversity Supplements; please check for eligibility here (https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/pa-18-586.html#_Section_III._Eligibility). As well, this position may qualify for UC Berkeley course credit.

Please review the complete list of labs with openings here, and submit applications through this Qualtrics survey. (https://ucsf.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_ePdYEuGPDx5vh3)

Contact Patrick Callahan (patrick.callahan@ucsf.edu?subject=Visiting%20Students%20Question) with general questions, or contact individual lab coordinators directly with questions about their lab’s work.
