D-Lab Workshops and Opportunities, April Newsletter

After Spring Break, jump back into the semester by checking out some of the D-Lab’s April workshops and events!

Consulting Drop-In Hours

We are continuing to offer our drop-in consulting Monday-Friday from 10am-5pm. Stop by our virtual front desk to speak with a consultant.

Browse our list of consultants here: https://dlab.berkeley.edu/consulting

Check out the drop-in hours schedule here: https://dlab.berkeley.edu/frontdesk-info

Job Opportunities

- Hiring (2) MAXQDA Instructors
  - Hiring two paid MAXQDA Instructors to lead our workshops. Applicants should have experience using advanced features of the software and be willing to design new workshop content. This role will work closely with D-Lab's Executive Director. Advanced workshop topics include using MAXQDA to write a literature
Miscellaneous Opportunities: Week of April 26, 2021

- Hiring Computational Social Science Lab Instructor (April 12)
  - The sociology department is recruiting a GSI or Lecturer to serve as the Lab Instructor for Computational Social Science this Fall 2021 and Spring 2022. This two-semester course provides a rigorous introduction to methods and tools in advanced data analytics for social science doctoral students. The goal of the course is to provide students with a strong foundation of knowledge of core methods, thereby preparing them to contribute to research teams, conduct their own research, and enroll in more advanced courses. The course will cover research reproducibility (fall), machine learning (fall), natural language processing (spring), and causal inference (spring).

Research Data Spotlight
Introducing CJARS, a New Data Platform for Integrated Criminal Justice Research

In partnership with the US Census Bureau and federal and state justice departments, the University of Michigan has just launched CJARS: the Criminal Justice Administrative Records System. Updated daily, CJARS provides a nationally integrated repository of longitudinal, multi-jurisdictional data harmonized and linked to track individuals through the criminal justice system across space and time. It has been built for integration with socio-economic survey and administrative Census data, making it a rich and important resource for multi-faceted criminal justice research. As a restricted-use dataset, CJARS is only available through the Federal Statistical Research Data Center Network, of which Berkeley is a member.

To jumpstart research a CJARS-NSF fellowship competition is currently underway which will grant $10,000 stipends to recipients. To find out more see the CJARS website (https://cjars.isr.umich.edu/) starting with the introductory webinar.

Summer Session
Sign Up For CALI-DH Online Today!

Are you interested in developing transferable competencies that are attractive to employers and academic programs? In our digital humanities program, the UC Berkeley Cultural Analytics Learning Institute for Digital Humanities (CALI-DH), you will explore questions about art and culture using digital tools. By pairing computational methods and domain specialization you can better understand complex phenomena and cultures and how computational analysis influences what you see. CALI-DH Online will guide you through the entire process of identifying relevant cultural artifacts and archives, curating your own subset of data, conducting advanced research, and communicating your findings.

To learn more about the courses offered this summer please visit here: https://dlab.berkeley.edu/blog/sign-cali-dh-online-today

Resources

● House Votes to Give Young Undocumented Immigrants a Path to Citizenship
  ○ On March 18, the House approved two bills on immigration: the “Dream and Promise Act,” which would provide a pathway to citizenship for young undocumented immigrants, and the “Farm Workforce Modernization Act,” which would expand the H2-A program and provide a citizenship route for farmworkers. Democrats and other supporters remain split over whether such a piecemeal approach or a comprehensive package is the best route to achieve immigration reform. UC reached out to every California Republican in the House of Representatives to ask for their support of the “Dream and Promise Act” and Congressman David Valadao (R-CA) joined every Democrat in the House of Representatives in voting in favor. We understand that the Senate Judiciary Committee is likely to consider the “Dream Act of 2021” in April, and it is expected to gather bipartisan support. UC will continue to advocate for comprehensive immigration reform and for a path to citizenship for our undocumented community members and their loved ones.

● CAPS Counselors for API Students
  ○ Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) aims to provide culturally sensitive care to under-served populations including Asian Pacific Islander (API) students. The counselors below specialize in working with API students.

Psychedelics, Eh? Canada’s Role in a Psychedelic Renaissance, 4/27

Psychedelics, eh? Canada's Role in a Psychedelic Renaissance
April 27 | 12:30 p.m. | RSVP here:
https://berkeley.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJYudeGvqDgiGtYThN36cY1Qa5soKRoLIWsu

In the 1950's, the Canadian province of Saskatchewan was on the cutting edge of research into hallucinogenic drugs. Under the province's massive healthcare reforms, researchers received grants to pursue LSD treatments they thought could revolutionize psychiatry. What do these experiments say about Canada's healthcare system and society at the time? And what can we learn from the program's successes and failures at a time when psychedelics are attracting renewed scientific and public interest?

Erika Dyck is the Canada Research Chair in the History of Health & Social Justice at the University of Saskatchewan. She specializes in the history of psychiatry, and has written several books on the history of psychedelic research and eugenics in Canada. She is the author of Psychedelic Psychiatry: LSD from Clinic to Campus (Johns Hopkins University Press), which covers the complex history of LSD in North America.

UCEAP Deadline for Select Programs, 4/27

The deadline for select spring options within the UC Education Abroad Program is April 27. Tuesday's deadline includes programs across the globe. The full list of locations and deadlines can be found on our site:
http://studyabroad.berkeley.edu/explore/programs?sponsor=71&country=All&term=All&language=All&region=All&order=field_deadline&sort=asc&page=7. Not sure which program is right for you? Visit our virtual advising office: https://myapp.berkeley.edu/advisingschedule.pdf

Featured Programs
- Field Research & Internship (Strasbourg, France)
  - Spring Term | Class Level: Jr, Sr | Prereqs: 5 semesters of university-level French
  - https://uceap.universityofcalifornia.edu/programs/field-research-internship-strasbourg
Miscellaneous Opportunities: Week of April 26, 2021

○ Work directly with local faculty to produce a specific research project linked to your major or interests. After 5 weeks of coursework, cross academic borders and work with international professionals to gain valuable skills for your career or graduate studies. A 12-week internship with an organization that can support your research could have you working with an open-source development team, building sets for a theater company, or researching treatments for bipolar disorder. At the end of the program, you’ll have a published research paper, distinguishing you from your peers. After work, explore Strasbourg’s monuments, take a tour of the Council of Europe, kayak the city’s waterways.

● University of Nicosia (Nicosia, Cyprus)
  ○ Spring Term | Class Level: So, Jr, Sr | Prereqs: None
  ○ https://uceap.universityofcalifornia.edu/programs/university-nicosia
  ○ Known for its pristine beaches and 300 days of sunshine, Cyprus is a hub of tourism. Nicosia, called Lefkosia by Greek residents, is the country’s capital and largest city on the southern part of the island. At the University of Nicosia, take courses in your major or explore ones that are less common across UC, like multimedia studies, interior design, or marketing. If you’re into finance or technology, you’ll be attending the first university to offer classes in crypto currency and block chain technology.

● Social Justice and Activism (Paris, France)
  ○ Spring Term | Class Level: So, Jr, Sr | Prereqs: None
  ○ In a nation where workers and students regularly march in the streets, activism takes on a new perspective. Discover how the core principles of social justice and political activism evolved into pillars of French society. Learn about past and present social issues facing France and its multicultural population. Explore French history, culture, and language in a course that uses the city as a classroom. Plunge into French culture with traditional dinners, cooking classes, concerts, and boat rides along the Seine River.

● Sotheby’s Institute of Art (London, UK)
  ○ Spring Term | Class Level: Jr, Sr | Prereqs: None
  ○ https://uceap.universityofcalifornia.edu/programs/sothebys-institute-art-london
  ○ Turn your passion for art into an exciting career at the Sotheby's Institute of Art in London and gain an inside view of the business behind the art. Train with historians, curators, lawyers, marketers, and faculty while taking classes steps away from the British Museum and National Gallery. You’ll have access to pre-sale art viewings at Sotheby’s auction house and talks by art experts. Each experience builds creative and professional skills. Pitch an idea to a panel of art dealers or intern at the mayor's office on a public art installation. Program field trips will take you to a variety of commercial galleries, artists’ studios, art fairs, and museums.

TDI: Data Science/Analytics Interview Tips & Upcoming Data Science Event, 4/28

One of the most important steps in an application for The Data Incubator’s data science and data analytics fellowships is the interview. In just a few minutes, the team has to get a good sense of who you are, your goals, and why you would be a good fit for the program. To help ensure you put your best foot forward, TDI has pulled together some of the best tips and tricks for rocking your interview -- whether it is with TDI or with a future employer for a dream job.

Data Science and Data Analytics Interview Tips

- Have a clear business objective: it is important to share the who/what/when/where/why and how of you and your work and what is the business implication of your work
- Active listening is key: answer the questions being asked of you
- Practice makes perfect: practice sharing your story in advance. This makes you a coherent and confident speaker. Don’t read off paper and have a clear structure to your presentation.
- Take a deep breath: deep breathing helps to calm you down so you come off more calm and collected during the interview process.
- Enjoy the process: your interview is the opportunity for you to shine. You are here to discuss your research and why you are a great candidate for the program. If you enjoy this part, imagine how great it will be when you join TDI’s 8 week program.

TDI’s Summer Data Science and Data Analytics Fellowship, Fri/May 7
Apply now: https://www.thedataincubator.com/

Upcoming Live Data Science Demo, Wed/April 28
Live Data Science Demo
Wednesday | April 28 | 2:30 p.m. PT

Join us on Wednesday, April 28th at 2:30 p.m. PT, for a live data science demo with TDI instructor Michael Cullan. Michael will cover some common tools and techniques for sharing interactive reports and conducting reproducible research. In this live webinar, Michael will show you how to:

- Clean up an exploratory Jupyter notebook into a presentable report
- Set up a Github repository to share notebooks and software requirements
- Create a new git branch to update a notebook without modifying the master copy
- Distribute a report in an interactive form using Binder

Child Adult Relationship Enhancement (CARE) Training, 4/30

Judge Baker Children’s Center is hosting this training on April 30th from 9 AM - 1 PM (Eastern Time) on zoom. We only have a few spots left for this unique experience! CARE is a non-clinical, trauma-informed behavioral management training for people who work with children. CARE can be used with children of all ages and can be generalized to a wide variety of settings and can be implemented at different levels of intensity. This is an ideal opportunity for school personnel, camp counselors, daycare workers, and more. More information Here

Berkeley Psi Chi Spring 2021 Recruitment, 4/30

The Berkeley chapter of Psi Chi — the international honors society for psychology — will be opening their application for interested students Monday 3/15. For application information please visit psichi.berkeley.edu. If you have any additional questions feel reach out to psichi@berkeley.edu.

Application: https://forms.gle/HfdhaQ9JpNDvkt9z6

Membership requirements are listed below.
Psi Chi Membership Requirements

DEADLINE TO APPLY: April 30th at 11:59 PM

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS:
- Be enrolled at UC Berkeley with a major or minor standing in psychology (or for a major or minor in a closely related program that is psychological in nature)
- Completed at least 3 semesters (minimum 36 semester hours) of college coursework
- Completed at least 9 semester hours of psychology coursework
- Have a minimum 3.3 psychology course GPA
- Have a minimum 3.3 cumulative GPA

GRADUATE STUDENTS:
- Be enrolled in a psychology (or psychology-related) graduate program at UC Berkeley
- Completed at least 9 semester hours of graduate-level coursework
- Earned a minimum GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale in all graduate courses
- Meet the graduate program’s academic requirements (e.g., if specific courses require an A or B, students must meet those requirements even if their cumulative GPA is above 3.0).

TRANSFER STUDENTS:
Undergraduate UC Berkeley Transfer Students meet the same requirements as undergraduate students who completed all coursework at UCB. However, UCB transfers credits but not grades; as such, transfer students begin with a 0.0 GPA and they must establish both a cumulative and a psychology GPA at Berkeley.

- Have completed at least one full semester at UC Berkeley
- Have registered for major or minor standing in psychology (or for a major or minor in a closely related program that is psychological in nature)
- Completed at least 3 semesters (minimum 36 semester hours) of college coursework
- Completed at least 9 semester hours of psychology coursework
- Have a minimum 3.3 psychology course GPA at UCB
  Based on completed psychology coursework for 9 semester credits
- Have a minimum 3.3 cumulative GPA at UCB
  Based on completed coursework for 12 semester credits

Note: Transfer Students (Undergraduate and Graduate) who are already members of Psi Chi may transfer their Psi Chi membership to the Chapter, but are not required to do so. Transfer Students who are already members do not have to pay another membership fee to the Society. However, if they do transfer their membership, they may purchase a new member certificate from their new Faculty Advisor.

Melting the Shame Freeze Workshops, 5/15 & 5/22

Melting the Shame Freeze –
Building Resilience, Resources, and a Return to Safety and Connection
A workshop for therapists and other helping professionals with Sheila Rubin LMFT, RDT/BCT and Bret Lyon PhD, SEP

Saturday, May 15, 10am-6pm & Saturday, May 22, 10am-5:45pm PDT
Online via Zoom – Live and Recorded

$395 full price / $375 with full payment by April 9 / Special price for interns

13 CE credits available – $40 fee (See website for details) - CAMFT CE provider #134393

Shame is an extraordinary combination of a primary emotion and a state of freeze. It is an embodied belief that "something is wrong with me." Shame, like trauma, puts the body in a freeze state and lowers the ability to think and act clearly. Because shame exists in the body as well as in the mind, it is important that therapists work with shame somatically. In this workshop, you will explore how to utilize somatic techniques to connect more quickly with the client and forge a strong therapeutic alliance. You will learn how to prevent somatic counter-transference and avoid taking on the client's physical shame patterns.

There is no prerequisite for this course. It can be taken by itself or as part of a sequence.

TO REGISTER, please visit the Schedule page at http://www.HealingShame.com.
For more information, call Sheila at 415-820-3974 or email Sheila@HealingShame.com.

Simply Neuroscience Action Potential Advising Program Mentorship, 5/30

Simply Neuroscience, a student-led non-profit organization works to expand interdisciplinary neuroscience education, outreach, and awareness for students. Over the past year, Simply Neuroscience has expanded to include a broader community of over 20,000 individuals spanning 49 U.S. states and 113 countries.

The recent launch of our Action Potential Advising Program (APAP) works to virtually connect young neuroscience students (“advisees”) with older professionals (“advisors”) to provide educational guidance and mentorship. The APAP’s mission is to bridge gaps in early neuroscience and psychology education through creating an international, centralized mentorship space that supports both STEM and humanities students.

Research Recruitment on College Conduct Sanctions

A doctoral student at University of North Dakota is leading a dissertation research study examining individual’s justice-related attitudes and conduct sanction responses on college/university campuses. Study participants will be asked to read a hypothetical harm vignette scenario and are asked to respond to questions. The study is open and available to all individuals 18 years of age and who belong to a college/university campus community (e.g., current student, faculty/staff, or administrator).

The IRB-approved survey (IRB0003038) will take between 15 and 20 minutes of your time, and participation is entirely anonymous. Participants will be compensated with a $10 Amazon gift card by providing a name and email address after survey completion. This study will benefit current empirical literature addressing conduct sanction responses for institutions of higher education.

The survey link is available here: https://und.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_8ceh1XC5FADEoOq

For any questions about this study, please do not hesitate to contact the Principal Investigator, Terrill Taylor, at terrill.taylor@und.edu, or the faculty supervisor, Tamba-Kuii Bailey, Ph.D., at tambakuii.bailey@und.edu. Members of the Institutional Review Board at the University of North Dakota may also be contacted if a problem cannot be discussed with the experimenters: (701) 777-4279 or UND.irb@UND.edu
Hello there! Re:treat is an online mental health self-care platform for college students to anonymously connect with peers' emotional experiences, share advice for self-care, and complete quick mental health exercises to boost their mood. Help the Berkeley Anti-Trafficking Coalition Support Survivors

The Berkeley Anti-Trafficking Coalition’s Semester Fundraiser: the Anti-Trafficking Coalition at Berkeley is fundraising to uplift the voices of survivors and thrivers, in support of our partner organization Survivor Alliance.

Survivor Alliance is a global network of survivor leaders that prioritizes the economic empowerment, leadership, meaningful representation, and community engagement of survivors in the anti-trafficking movement.

All proceeds will be used to support survivors and thrivers of human trafficking. Want to contribute? Venmo your donation @Berkeley-AntiTrafficking. Any amount is so appreciated.

Here are some reasons why Survivor Alliance’s work has been so crucial for the global anti-trafficking movement:

- Survivor network: Survivor Alliance is building a global, interconnected community of survivors of trafficking and creates space for survivors to learn from one another and build strong peer support networks.
- Survivor leaders: Survivor Alliance educates and empowers survivors to become community leaders through survivor-informed curriculum designed by and for survivors.
- Survivor voices: Survivor Alliance empowers survivors in anti-trafficking policy making and advocacy by training allies in the field to more ethically and meaningfully engage with survivors’ lived experiences and expertise.

Thank you so much for your support. If you have any questions, please email us at berkeleyantitrafficking@gmail.com!
