Here is the AAPI Wellness Guide 2021.

It is one of many products from the AAPISC, led by Lisa Hirai Tsuchitani and Marcia Gee Riley. AAPISC is an inaugural advisory body to the Chancellor and her Cabinet under the executive sponsorship of VCEI Oscar Dubón that was created in 2019 to increase awareness about and address campus climate issues for AAPI undergraduate and graduate students, staff, and faculty: https://diversity.berkeley.edu/aapisc

The Vanguard at Berkeley Recruitment, 9/14 - 9/16

The Vanguard at Berkeley is a student-run branch of the Davis Vanguard (davisvanguard.org). Our organization aims to provide community-based watchdog and news reporting of local government and criminal justice reform. We aim to bring transparency, accountability and fairness to our local government and courts. The Vanguard was established on our UC Berkeley campus last semester—so we are still new and hoping to grow!

Interested in observing and writing about court proceedings? Prison reform? Social justice? General events in Northern CA? Do you want to interview members of the community? Have an issue you’re passionate about and want to investigate? Want to see your hard work published?

Apply to be a reporter! No experience required, just a desire to learn and write!

We will be offering both in-person and virtual options for court watch at the Alameda County Courthouse.

We’re holding two infosessions (starting on BerkeleyTime):
September 7th 6:30-7:30 PM: In-person (location TBA)
September 14th 6:30-7:30 PM: Virtual (Meeting ID: 579 281 2981, Passcode: 3058)

We hope to see your application!

CaHPSA Recruitment, 9/14 - 9/17

CaHPSA is a health advocacy club looking to promote universal healthcare and other issues in healthcare through our two committees: Project White Coat and Health Alerts. Project White Coat is an opportunity for students to work to become registered insurance counselors who can then advise and help community members sign up for health insurance. Health Alerts is a committee more focused on the policy, political, and legal side of healthcare, with members advocating for issues in healthcare by contacting representatives, learning more about the Affordable Care Act and other important pieces of America’s healthcare system, developing resources that can be used to educate the community, and much more. More information about our organization and recruitment can be found on our website: cahpsa.berkeley.edu. Feel free to follow us on Facebook (CaHPSA Berkeley) and Instagram (@cahpsaberkeley) or feel free to email us at cahpsa.berkeley@gmail.com.

Baruch College I-O Ph.D. Program Open Houses, 9/14 - 11/2

The industrial and organizational psychology program of the Graduate Center and Baruch College (City University of New York) will hold virtual open houses for fall 2022 admissions on:
Tuesday - September 14th from 6:30pm-7:30pm EST
Tuesday - October 12th from 6:30pm-7:30pm EST
Tuesday - November 2nd from 6:30pm-7:30pm EST

The open houses will be an opportunity to learn more about the Ph.D. program and application process, hear from current students and faculty, and engage in a question and answer session.

Advanced registration is required. You can register for the event here. After you register, you will receive a link to the virtual event.

Please contact Dr. Charles Scherbaum (Charles.Scherbaum@baruch.cuny.edu) with any questions on the registration or event.

Re:treat Recruitment, 9/15

Named for Ronald E. McNair, a prominent African-American Astronaut who overcame extreme prejudice to become the second African American in space, the McNair Scholars Program is committed to fostering the academic self-efficacy of marginalized students. Whether low-income, first-generation, or otherwise underrepresented, the McNair Program provides an intersectional home for students who are often academically disenfranchised.

Each year, up to 30 McNair Scholars are selected to participate in the program, which takes place throughout the Spring semester and subsequent Summer. These 30 students are given a generous stipend, support from faculty mentors and the McNair Staff, and the opportunity to pioneer their own research. Scholars are encouraged to undertake research that relates to their lived experiences, and they share this research by presenting at our National Ronald E. McNair Scholars Symposium and publishing in The Berkeley McNair Research Journal. The Berkeley McNair Program vehemently believes that research is not divorced from the self but comes from the ways we move through and access the world.
We hope you consider applying to the McNair Scholars Program. We would love to have you join our family of scholars! Please explore our website, and feel free to contact us if you have questions or concerns.

Funding for the McNair Scholars Program is provided by the U.S. Department of Education Ronald E. McNair Post-Baccalaureate Achievement Program as part of the Federal TRiO program, and is overseen on the UC Berkeley campus by Division of Equity and Inclusion.

UCDC, 9/16

The UC Washington Program (UCDC) will resume in-person programming for the fall 2021 semester. Students from across the University of California will live and take classes at the UC Washington Center and intern at agencies, offices, and organizations across the greater DC area. In order to ensure the safety of all participants, UCDC will operate at half capacity. The student cohort from Berkeley will be made up of 20 juniors and seniors from a range of majors and interests, including climate change, immigration, health care policy, journalism, art history, and others.

For students interested in learning more about UCDC, please follow this link. Email with any questions or to set up an advising appointment.

The application deadline for the Spring 2022 semester is September 16, 2021.

D-Lab Workshop: R Data Wrangling and Manipulation, 9/17

Sep 17 | 2pm-5pm | Register for Zoom link

It is said that 80% of data analysis is spent on the process of cleaning and preparing the data for exploration, visualization, and analysis. This R workshop will introduce the dplyr and tidyr packages to make data wrangling and manipulation easier. Participants will learn how to use these packages to subset and reshape data sets, do calculations across groups of data, clean data, and other useful tasks.
Second Annual Harvard Prospective PhD and RA Event in Psychology, 9/17

The Harvard Department of Psychology is hosting the second annual Prospective PhD & RA Event in Psychology (P-PREP). The goal of this workshop is to recruit and provide mentorship and support to students from historically under-represented groups in STEM with their applications to graduate school, lab manager, and/or research assistant positions.

This program is free and open to students who are applying to doctoral programs or lab manager / research assistant positions this fall. The workshop will take place October 16-17, and participants will receive one-on-one mentorship from a member of the Harvard Psychology Department on their application materials after the workshop.

More information, including details on how to apply, can be found here: https://psychology.fas.harvard.edu/pprep

Participants had an overwhelmingly positive experience in the program last year. Here are what a few participants had to say about the program:

“I attended Harvard’s PPREP program this weekend and it was the most helpful graduate school info I’ve ever received. EVERY grad school should provide programs like this if they’re serious about diversity, equity, and inclusion work!”

“Feeling lucky & grateful to have participated in Harvard’s PPREP this weekend. Panelists gave indispensable, candid advice on applying to psych grad school and navigating academia with a marginalized identity.”

Atrium Magazine Recruitment, 9/19

Atrium is a literary magazine that aims to cultivate the human side of studying and practicing the life sciences by giving UC Berkeley students a platform to creatively explore and discuss the intersection between the life sciences and the humanities. We are recruiting for staff writers this fall! Below are some relevant links to the recruitment process:

Zoom infosession on Tuesday, 9/14 @7pm: https://berkeley.zoom.us/j/94537762139

D-Lab Workshop: Qualtrics Fundamentals, 9/22

Sep 22 | 1pm-4pm | Register for Zoom link

Qualtrics is a powerful online tool available to Berkeley community members that can be used for a range of data collection activities. Primarily, Qualtrics is designed to make web surveys easy to write, test, and implement, but the software can be used for data entry, training, quality control, evaluation, market research, pre/post-event feedback, and other uses with some creativity.

Global Poverty & Practice Minor Info Sessions, 9/22 - 10/1

Cal Students,

We invite you to learn about the Global Poverty & Practice Minor!

The GPP Minor introduces students to the theoretical frameworks, methods, and practical skills necessary to engage with global poverty and inequality in effective ways.

The minor requires five courses and a "Practice Experience." This experience is a central component of the minor in which students partner with domestic or international non-governmental or community organizations, government agencies, or other poverty or development programs, on various dimensions of poverty action – from food security and sustainable technologies to economic justice and grass-roots political power. The combination of the coursework for the minor and this real world experience allows students to connect theories and practices of poverty action. Funding is available to support students’ practice experiences.

The deadline to declare the minor this semester is Wednesday, October 6th. There are no prerequisites required to declare.

The Declaration Form and additional information about the minor can be found at: http://blumcenter.berkeley.edu/gppminor.

Information Sessions about the minor will be held at the following times:
Wednesday, September 22nd, 12pm - 1pm (Blum Hall B100 A/B)

Friday, October 1st, 11am - 12pm (Remote)

All Info Session details can also be found on the GPP Website.

Contact gppminor@berkeley.edu with any questions.

Berkeley Undergraduate Journal, 9/24

Berkeley Undergraduate Journal - Paper Submission Fall 2021

Think you have written a superb academic research paper? Looking for a chance to publish your excellent work? Please consider working with Berkeley Undergraduate Journal to share your research and writing. As Cal's oldest undergraduate research journal, BUJ publishes carefully reviewed and edited scholarly work from the humanities and social sciences on the University of California’s eScholarship website, highlighting the strength of undergraduate scholarship on the UC Berkeley campus.

To submit your paper, please follow the guidelines listed on our website https://buj.berkeley.edu/submit. The deadline for Fall 2021 paper submission is Sept 24th. If you have questions regarding paper submission, please contact our staff advisor Leah Carroll (carroll2@berkeley.edu). For all other inquiries, please email buj@berkeley.edu. We look forward to working with you and getting your work published!

UJPB Call For Submissions, 9/26

We are now accepting submissions for the Undergraduate Journal of Psychology at Berkeley’s 2022 issue! Rolling submissions are accepted until September 26th, 2021.

UJPB accepts and reviews original undergraduate research from all psychology-related fields, including psychology, neuroscience, cognitive science, and linguistics. This includes senior honors theses, course term papers, independent research projects, and literature reviews. Multiple submissions from the same author, as well as multi-university collaborations, are welcome!

This is a great opportunity for Psychology students who have recently taken Psychology 101 and have a paper already written for submission.

Please follow the link at the bottom of the page to submit your article.
To submit an article for review, please fill out this form: https://forms.gle/ouymiPVEPw7RyV9n8

For additional inquiries, please email team@ujpb.berkeley.edu or visit our website at UJPB | Home (berkeley.edu).

If you have interest in becoming an editor for UJPB, please find us on the Decal page.

- Wed, Sept 22 @ 4-5pm (RSVP Here)

The Island Sustainability Program is comprised of a 15-week semester of five interrelated ESPM courses. Some of the courses run consecutively, some concurrently. Classes will take place in classroom & island field settings. The five courses are completed over 15 weeks; 11 weeks at the UC Gump South Pacific Research Station on the north shore of Moorea, and 4 weeks completing a capstone project remotely. Students will have online access to Instructors during this time.

Students from all academic disciplines will be considered for this program, but preference will be given to students who have completed at least one lower division class from the following: biology, ecology, environmental studies, or environmental science.

Students will take the following 5 courses as part of the program:
Miscellaneous Opportunities: Week of September 13, 2021

- Island and Coral Reef Resilience and Ecosystem Services - ESPM 109A
- Polynesian Culture and Society - ESPM 109B
- Issues in Biodiversity - ESPM 109C
- Environmental Planning, Policy, and Management - ESPM 109D
- Data Science, Communication, and Professionalism - ESPM 109E

All courses in this program are offered for UC Berkeley credit and will appear on the student’s transcript as Berkeley courses with letter grades.

To be eligible students must:
- Be a current matriculated UCB student
- Have at least Junior Standing
- 2.5 GPA or higher
- Be at least 18 years old by program departure
- Have a passport valid with an expiration date beyond Oct 2022
- Have proof of complete Covid-19 vaccination (French Polynesia requirement)

The application opens August 30, 2021. Space is limited and applications are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. The deadline to apply is October 4, 2021. Financial aid is available.

For students that have questions, please refer them to visit our website or to email Program Adviser, Sara Assadi-Nik at sassadinik@berkeley.edu.

Knight-Hennessy Scholars Program (2022–2023), 10/6

Reminder: Knight-Hennessy Scholars Program (2022–2023)

Application deadline: October 6, 2021

The Knight-Hennessy Scholars Program is designed to build a multidisciplinary community of Stanford graduate students. The program—which covers tuition, fees, living expenses for three years of graduate study—annually identifies a group of 100 high-achieving students from around the world with demonstrated leadership and civic commitment. Knight-Hennessy Scholars develop both the depth and range of subject expertise to confront the numerous grand challenges and opportunities of the future. This is a diverse community of change agents that will support you, motivate you, and hold you accountable for achieving your goals, even when the odds of success seem likely against you.
Miscellaneous Opportunities: Week of September 13, 2021

For more information, please visit: https://scholarships.berkeley.edu/knight-hennessy. Interested applicants should schedule an advising appointment with Keila Diehl (ourschol-coordinator@berkeley.edu).

Soros Fellowship for New Americans, 10/28

Students interested in learning more about the Paul & Daisy Soros Fellowship for New Americans are welcome to make an individual advising appointment with Keila Diehl (ourschol-coordinator@berkeley.edu).

The Paul & Daisy Soros Fellowships for New Americans is a two-year, merit-based fellowship exclusively for immigrants and children of immigrants, age 30 or younger, who are pursuing graduate work in any degree-granting program in any field at any university in the United States. Selection is based on merit, with an emphasis on creativity, originality, initiative, and sustained accomplishment. Neither financial need nor distributive considerations are taken into account in the selection process.

In addition to the children of immigrants, Green Card holders, naturalized citizens, and Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) recipients, the Fellowship also supports individuals who have come to the United States as refugees or asylum seekers and who have received a Green Card or become naturalized US citizens. The Fellowship also supports immigrants who were born abroad and graduated from both high school and college in the United States. Each year, fellows receive $25,000 in stipend support, as well as up to $20,000 toward tuition.

For more information, visit: https://scholarships.berkeley.edu/soros

Applications for the 2022 cohort are due October 28, 2021.

UJRP Call for Submissions, 11/15

CALL FOR UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH PAPERS

Have you completed a research paper in a psychology-related field (i.e. psychology, cognitive science, neuroscience, linguistics)? Are you looking for a platform to publish your work? If so, The Undergraduate Research Journal of Psychology at UCLA (URJP) WANTS YOU to submit your papers for our annual publication, expected to be released Spring 2022.

URJP is an organization dedicated to informing the community of psychological findings through research run by undergraduates from all universities. Last year, we received submissions ranging from local to international universities. URJP is one of the few established psychology journals that publishes undergraduate psychological research.
Miscellaneous Opportunities: Week of September 13, 2021

To submit, the papers must fulfill the requirements below:

- Original work completed by undergraduates (Includes senior honors theses, independent research, reviews, theoretical papers, and other scholarly writing)
- Never before been published

If you have not completed an independent research project, we still encourage you to apply by submitting a “literature review article” which does not require access to research data.

The deadline to submit papers is November 15, 2021 at 11:59 P.M. PST. Multiple submissions from one author are welcome. If you would like to submit an article for consideration, please complete the following:

- Replace any identifying information (i.e. author name, institution) with empty brackets, to ensure anonymity within the selection process
- Visit our website's submission page.
- Read our submission criteria.
- Once you have filled out the form linked on the submission page, send the following in an email to psychjournal.ucla@gmail.com
  - In the body of the email, include the following information: (1) your full name, (2) full article title, (3) article type (i.e., literature review, research article), (4) your email address

More information regarding our submission criteria and types of articles accepted can be found on our website, https://urjp.psych.ucla.edu/. To view our prior publications, please visit our website at https://urjp.psych.ucla.edu/publications/.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us at psychjournal.ucla@gmail.com for further information. We look forward to reviewing your submissions!

Center for Race and Gender (CRG) Research Grants, 11/15

The Center for Race & Gender welcomes proposals from undergraduate students to support research or creative projects. Project topics should be consonant with CRG’s mandate to support critical student research on race, gender, and their intersections in a wide variety of social, cultural, and institutional contexts. Proposals that address both race and gender will be prioritized, and proposals that do not address race at all will be de-prioritized. Projects may be oriented toward academic research or may approach race and gender issues from the perspectives of the media, fine arts, and performing arts.

Fall 2021 Deadline
Monday, November 15 2021 by 5pm
Accepting applications in early September 2021.

There will be another set of low-cost, high quality, LSAT and GRE prep courses offered live online this fall for Cal students and alum. You can apply for the live courses (and see testimonials, etc.) at campusprep.org.

Fast Facts:
- Campus Prep has built a reputation for helping students get great point gains for little cost. We have run the low-cost LSAT prep courses at UCLA, UC Davis, and other schools for the past 10 years.
- Our students who complete the course average a 9-point gain on the LSAT.
- We are able to offer these courses for so much cheaper than any similar courses because of our partnerships with law schools, departments, and student groups.

$275 LSAT Course

The comprehensive course preps you for the November and January test dates. This 27-hour, live course includes 3 practice exams and costs $275 ($225 if you qualify for financial aid from us).

The course is taught by a high-scoring, expert instructor.

Sigma Xi Scientific Research Honor Society Interest Form

Hello and welcome!

If you are interested in joining a growing community of student and faculty researchers, networking, mentorship, learning about others' research, and more, please consider joining Sigma Xi, the Scientific Research Honor Society! Sigma Xi was a huge part of our lives (Morgan and Mitch!) in undergraduate and it's an organization we're looking forward to growing here at Berkeley and UCSF for grad and undergrad students. Currently it's only a few students and faculty, but our vision is to make it a big and strong chapter full of life again through mentorship, community outreach, and sharing our science passions! If you're interested in learning more about Sigma Xi or possibly joining, please fill out this 2 minute form so we can distribute more information! (This is a non-binding interest form and you can opt out of emails at any time!)

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to reach out! (morgan.pfaff@berkeley.edu)
