We encourage you to visit our Scholarship Connection website to discover scholarship opportunities, and join the scholarship listerv, which will provide you with updates on upcoming scholarship deadlines, information sessions, and workshops.

SLC Writing Program: Book an Appointment Today!

Dear Cal writers

Haven’t booked an appointment with the SLC Writing Program yet? Well, you’re in luck—we still have open slots this week!

With summer in full swing, it’s a great time to book a free, 50-minute session to talk about your writing. Whether you’re polishing a midterm paper, brainstorming ideas for a research topic, or hoping to discuss an instructor’s feedback on your last essay, our attentive, knowledgeable tutors are eager to partner with you.

So, visit us in the Writing Lounge, Monday-Friday between 10-5PM, to take your writing to the next level!

Gilman Scholarship Application Workshop, 9/11/19

Are you a Pell Grant recipient and U.S. citizen who is planning to study and/or intern abroad? Learn how you can receive up to $5,000 toward a study abroad experience at the Gilman Scholarship Application Workshop.

Gilman Scholarship Application Workshop
Wednesday, September 11
3:30 p.m.-5 p.m.
Stephens Lounge at MLK Student Union

The workshop will review scholarship and eligibility requirements, feature presentations by recent Gilman Scholars from Berkeley, and explain how to apply for the scholarship, including tips for preparing a strong application.

Berkeley Study Abroad is also hosting a Gilman Scholarship essay review on September 25 at 160 Stephens Hall. Check out the Facebook event page for more information: https://www.facebook.com/events/388305491787672/

The Cycle 1 Gilman Scholarship deadline is 9:59 p.m. on Tuesday, October 1, 2019. Cycle 1 is open for applicants whose programs start between December 2019 and October 2020. This cycle encompasses Spring 2020, Summer 2020, Fall 2020, and Academic Year 2020-2021 programs.

For more information or to apply, visit www.gilmanscholarship.org

➢ Big Ideas Contest Information Session, 9/12/19

The Big Ideas Contest is Back!

Now in its 14th year, the Big Ideas Contest is back and ready to support early-stage innovators and their transformative projects! This year’s contest will feature new tracks, including Financial Inclusion and Education & Literacy, and increased award levels (up to $20,000!) If you are an undergraduate or graduate student from an eligible campus with an innovative solution to a pressing social challenge, you are encouraged to apply (deadline November 20). Not sure if your idea/project/team is a good fit for Big Ideas? Sign up for an online or in-person advising session to discuss your big idea and to learn more about the contest criteria:
Big Ideas Information Session: Featuring Kaloum Bankhi, 2019 Big Ideas Winner
Thursday, September 12, 6pm PT | B100 Blum Hall, UC Berkeley

Attend the first info session to learn about the contest requirements, get feedback on your idea, and network with fellow innovators. In addition, come hear from Matt Turlock of Kaloum Bankhi (2019 winner) share his Big Ideas experience and how it helped shape him as a social innovator. (Live-stream will be available) RSVP Here: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfcburTfam2PjK1wp8DwFIMXjPfqX6uXXUONbs7nDtRAbU9Rg/viewform

Join ARC Repertory Theater, 9/12/19

Are you interested in theater & performing arts and meeting new people? Join ARC Rep!

ARC Rep is a theater and performing arts group on campus that was founded last year to help showcase Asian-American and minority narratives on stage and through other media outlets. We host a show every semester that brings to light the different facets of being both American and Asian or other minority. Everyone is welcome to join, regardless if you are or are not Asian/American or POC identifying. No prior theater experience needed to join as well.

If you are interested in joining, please come out to our info sessions:
9/12 Thursday, 8-9 PM, Dwinelle 206

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact us at arcrepertory@gmail.com

Wildlands Studies Student Info Session, 9/12/19

Wildlands Studies field projects provide students with the opportunity to join backcountry study teams as working field associates, studying environmental impact assessment, environmental policy, geologic, climatic and topographic factors that support various habitats, and the relationships between environments and culture. Most participants are undergraduates who join us on site from all over North America and Canada.

Each program grants 5-15 units of upper division semester credit that easily transfers to UC Berkeley. Project teams consist of 8-16 participants working with a course instructor who provides onsite instruction and directs all field study activities.

This season, students can choose among wildlife, wildland and culture ecology field studies searching for solutions to environmental and cultural challenges. Field studies take place in: Alaska, Australia, Belize, Big Sur (California), California Channel Islands, Chile, Ecuador, India, Indonesia, Nepal, New Zealand, Peru, South Africa, Thailand, and Yellowstone.
Information on all of our programs is available on our website at http://www.wildlandsstudies.com. Or, email us at wildlands@wildlandsstudies.com.

Please join us at the Student Information Session and learn how to participate!

➢ Get Mentored by Engineers at Pivotal Software, 9/13/19

Pivotal Software is piloting a new mentorship program during the 2019-2020 school year to connect our passionate engineers and product managers to undergrads in the STEM field who belong to a historically underrepresented group in the tech industry including but not limited to students who identify as female, Black, Hispanic and/or LatinX, Native American, students with disabilities, and veterans. We want to help interested students think about their career, what paths exist, and how to build up the skills to get there.

If you're interested, please complete the interest form below by Friday, September 13th.
Upon submission of this form, we will do our best to match you with a Pivot who can best support you in your personal and professional development over the course of the '19-'20 school year. Some of the focus areas that will be covered throughout the program include: technical skills building, imposter syndrome, resume workshops, and behavioral interview prep. Our mentors are incredibly excited to get to know you and help support you in all your future career success!

Upcoming UC Berkeley Labor Center Events, 9/19/19 & 10/1/19

Thursday, September 19, 2019 from 4-6pm
UC Berkeley Labor Center
2521 Channing Way
Berkeley, CA

The Labor Center is co-sponsoring this event with the UC Berkeley American Studies Department

Join us for a conversation with author Michael Mark Cohen, UC Berkeley associate teaching professor in the American Studies Department.

ABOUT CONSPIRACY OF CAPITAL:
Between the 1880s and 1920s, a broad coalition of American dissidents, which included rabble-rousing cartoonists, civil liberties lawyers, socialist detectives, union organizers, and revolutionary martyrs, forged a culture of popular radicalism that directly challenged an emergent corporate capitalism. Monopoly capitalists and their allies in government responded by expanding conspiracy laws and promoting conspiracy theories in an effort to destroy this anti-capitalist movement. The result was an escalating class conflict in which each side came to view the other as a criminal conspiracy.

In this detailed cultural history, Michael Mark Cohen argues that a legal, ideological, and representational politics of conspiracy contributed to the formation of a genuinely revolutionary mass culture in the United States, starting with the 1886 Haymarket bombing. Drawing on a wealth of primary sources, The Conspiracy of Capital offers a new history of American radicalism and the alliance between the modern business corporation and national security state through a comprehensive reassessment of the role of conspiracy laws and conspiracy theories in American social movements.

2019 UC Davis Pre-Health Conference, 10/19/19

This conference is one of the largest pre-health conferences in the nation. Each year 3000+ pre-health students come to the UC Davis campus to explore different health related career paths, experience hands-on healthcare activities via interactive workshops, and connect with other pre-health students and health professionals from around the nation.

Additionally, we aim to have over 200 exhibitors from health professions schools from across the nation. This gives advisors and students an opportunity to ask tough questions, connect with representatives. The Pre-Health Fair takes place from 10 am to 3 pm, so there is plenty of time to both visit the Fair and attend a couple of workshops.
The schedule for this year’s Conference is as follows:
7-9 am: Check In & Breakfast
9-10 am: Keynote Speaker: Dr. Piri Ackerman-Barger, PhD, RN
10-11:15 am: Pre-Health Fair
11:30 am-12:30 pm: Lunch
12:45-1:45 pm: Workshop Session I
2-3 pm: Workshop Session II
3:15-4:15 pm: Workshop Session III

Group registration is available for 10 or more, which reduces the ticket cost to $10 per person. Please encourage your students to purchase their tickets early, as we have sold out in the past. Bus or shuttle parking is available. Those who drive cars and park in the nearby garage will need to pay for campus parking at $9. Registration fees include: access to the conference, a t-shirt, bag, breakfast and lunch if they choose a sponsored lunch. Lunch may also be purchased on their own or through Eventbrite.

Apply to Health++, Stanford’s Health Hackathon, 10/19-10/20/19

Health++ is Stanford's weekend-long hackathon enabling engineers, designers, entrepreneurs, and healthcare professionals to collaborate on meaningful challenges in the healthcare space.

This year, we're going BIGGER—more prizes, more food, more workshops, more sponsors, more fun workshops and activities. Anyone is welcome to apply, regardless of field of expertise! That means, NO EXPERIENCE IN CS REQUIRED. Our most interdisciplinary teams often create the best hacks!

CALL FOR UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH PAPERS
Have you completed a research paper in a psychology-related field (i.e. psychology, cognitive science, neuroscience, linguistics)? Are you looking for a platform to publish your work? If so, The Undergraduate Research Journal of Psychology at UCLA (URJP) WANTS YOU to submit your papers for our annual publication, expected to be released Spring 2019. URJP is an organization dedicated to informing the community of psychological findings through research run by undergraduates from all universities. Last year, we received submissions ranging from local to international universities. URJP is one of the few established psychology journals that publish undergraduate psychological research.

To submit, the papers must fulfill the requirements below:

- Original work completed by undergraduates (includes senior honors theses, independent research, reviews, theoretical papers, and other scholarly writing)
- Never before been published
- APA formatted (we can help with this!)

If you have not completed an independent research project, we still encourage you to apply by submitting a “literature review article” which does not require access to research data.

The deadline to submit papers is November 8, 2019. Multiple submissions from one author are welcome. If you would like to submit an article for consideration, please complete the following:

- Replace any identifying information (i.e. author name, institution) with empty brackets, to ensure anonymity within the selection process
- Visit our website's submission page, https://urjp.psych.ucla.edu/submissions/
- Once you have filled out the form above, send the following in an email to psychjournal.ucla@gmail.com
• In the body of the email, include the following information: (1) your full name, (2) full article title, (3) article type (i.e., literature review, research article), (4) your email address

More information regarding our submission criteria and types of articles accepted can be found on our website, https://urjp.psych.ucla.edu/
If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us at psychjournal.ucla@gmail.com for further information. To view our prior publications, please visit our website at https://urjp.psych.ucla.edu/publications/. We look forward to reviewing your submissions!

➢ Fall 2019 Intersection of Human-Centered Design and Emerging Technologies

Whether you're coming back to campus or are a new Cal bear, welcome! If you are interested in exploring the intersection of human-centered design and emerging technologies, we invite you to join the vibrant interdisciplinary design community at Jacobs Hall.

Some timely opportunities are listed below, including back-to-school events, funding, and volunteer opportunities. You can also check out the Jacobs student resources page to learn about the courses, makerspace, events, mentorship/funding, and student-led activities offered here.

Back-to-school events
We have a full lineup of events to help you learn about student resources available at Jacobs, meet our team, and connect with other new and returning members of our community. The events include:

• Building tours (9/13)
Get more details about each event and RSVP! They are all free and open to all students at Berkeley.

Apply to join the Jacobs Student Advisory Board by 9/15
The Jacobs Student Advisory Board (SAB) helps to ensure that the opinions, needs, and interests of the student community are taken into account during strategic planning and program development. SAB members should be invested in the design community at Berkeley and represent diverse perspectives from the student community. Applications to join the 2019-2020 SAB are due by Sunday, September 15th.

L&S Fall 2019 Events
Global Poverty & Practice Minor Info Sessions

The GPP Minor introduces students to the theoretical frameworks, methods, and practical skills necessary to engage with global poverty and inequality in effective ways.

The minor requires five courses and a "Practice Experience." This experience is a central component of the minor in which students partner with domestic or international non-governmental or community organizations, government agencies, or other poverty or development programs, on various dimensions of poverty action – from food security and sustainable technologies to economic justice and grass-roots political power. The combination of the coursework for the minor and this real world experience allows students to connect theories and practices of poverty action. Funding is available to support students’ practice experiences.

The deadline to declare the minor this semester is Wednesday, October 9th. There are no prerequisites required to declare.

The Declaration Form and additional information about the minor can be found at: http://blumcenter.berkeley.edu/gppminor.

Information Sessions about the minor will be held in Blum Hall 100A/B (Ground Floor) at the following times:

- Wednesday, September 4th 12 - 1 PM
- Tuesday, September 10th 4 - 5 PM
- Thursday, September 19th 3 - 4 PM
- Tuesday, September 24th 5 - 6 PM
- Monday, September 30th 12 - 1 PM
- Friday, October 4th 11 AM - 12 PM

Contact gppminor@berkeley.edu with any questions.

Centering Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion at Jacobs Hall

The Jacobs Institute's plans this year is to solicit feedback from the student community and revisit the design of programs to advance diversity, equity, and inclusion, in line with broader efforts in the College of Engineering and the university at large. Motivating this process is a commitment to supporting underrepresented students at Berkeley interested in exploring design, including first-generation students, minorities, women, and others.

Read the full announcement about our plans: http://jacobsinstitute.berkeley.edu/news/centering-diversity-equity-inclusion-jacobs-hall/

Participate in the process by completing our Student Community Climate Survey below. This short, anonymous questionnaire is an important tool for hearing about student experiences at Jacobs Hall; it also offers opportunities for those interested to be involved in future focus groups and interviews.
