PSYCHOLOGY PEER ADVISOR JOB DESCRIPTION
Fall 2020

Working directly with and supervised by Jennifer Ochoa and Christine Mullarkey, Peer Advisors provide general information to undergraduate students regarding the Psychology major, offer career and graduate school information, and participate in major-related events.

QUALIFICATIONS

1. Peer Advisors must be registered students at the University of California at Berkeley.
2. Peer Advisors must be declared majors in Psychology or have applied this Fall 2020 to declare the major.
3. Peer Advisors must have already completed at least one upper division Psychology course.
4. Peer Advisors must be in good academic standing.
5. Prior advising or related experience is desirable though not required; familiarity with Berkeley campus resources is helpful.

TERMS OF THE POSITION

1. The position begins on 08/26/20 and continues through the end of the Fall 2020 semester (Preferred two semester commitment. One semester commitments will still be considered)
2. Peer Advisors are supervised by the UMAs in Psychology Student Services. Continued employment is contingent upon satisfactory job performance evaluation by the undergraduate advisor.
3. Peer Advisors are expected to work 3 hours per week for drop-in advising, and attend one meeting each month on Fridays 11:00-noon, as well as devote time to other events.
4. Peer Advisors will receive 1-3 units of Psych 197 credit on a P/NP basis. Grading is based on attendance, punctuality, and fulfillment of duties.
5. Peer Advisors facilitate at least one workshop per semester in any field within or related to Psychology.

The following describes some of the general duties of this position.

1. ADVISING
   (a) Provide 3-9 hours per week of walk-up advising at the Peer Advising desk in 2210 Berkeley Way West. We prefer students who are able to dedicate at least 6 hours during their first semester as a peer adviser.
   (b) Provide general information to undergraduate students regarding major requirements and procedures using resources such as the major checklist, informational flyers and various forms.
   (c) Assist students with course schedule planning and declaring the major.
   (d) Provide general information about career and graduate school options.
   (e) Make appropriate referrals to professional advisors, campus services, resources and events.

2. TRAINING AND MEETINGS
   (a) Participate in meetings throughout the semester on Fridays, 11am-12 noon. Meeting schedule TBA.

3. PROGRAMMING AND PUBLICITY
   (a) Assist SSO with events, as needed.
   (b) Give presentations to students about the Psychology major.
   (c) Assist the SSO advisors with academic and career-related programs.
   (d) Produce videos or publicity materials for events and advising.
